

Welcome to Seniors' and Parents' Day at Baldwin-Wallace

BEREA, OHIO -- The Baldwin-Wallace College Athletic Department would like to congratulate senior student-athletes Sarah Cohen, Katie Cvelbar, Nicole Dennis and Danielle Miller, Nic Null and Zach Pfeil on completing their outstanding athletic careers at the College. Their hard work, dedication and commitment to the program is evident and a big reason for the team's successes. These young women and man have had solid careers not only athletically and coaching but academically as well. In addition, their leadership has been a key element.

The College also would like to congratulate the parents of each of these students for their loyalty and support. Tonight, we also honor your hard work, commitment and dedication as well.

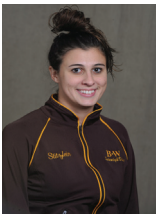

The College wishes Sarah, Katie, Nicole, Danielle, Nic and Zach as well as their parents all the best of luck in their future endeavors.

*****

The 2011-12 Yellow Jacket Seniors

SARAH COHEN is a history and english double major from Columbus, Ohio and a graduate of Grandview Heights High School. Sarah is in her first year on the Yellow Jacket swim team and will earn her first varsity letter after the season. Although a newcomer to the team, Sarah has shown a strong work ethic and improvement throughout the season. Sarah swims the sprint freestyle and butterfly events. Sarah is the daughter of Laurie Cohen and Marshall Cohen.

KATIE CVELBAR is a sport management major from South Euclid, Ohio and a graduate of Regina High School. Katie has earned two varsity letters and will earn her third this season. As a freshman, Katie posted a career-best time in the 200-yard backstroke during the 2009 OAC Championships. As a sophomore, Katie swam a career-best time in the 100-yard backstroke. This season, Katie is swimming in the sprint freestyle and backstroke events. Katie is the daughter of Pattie and Tony Cvelbar.

NICOLE DENNIS is an international business major from Northfield, Ohio and a graduate of Nordonia High School. Nicole has earned three varsity letters and will earn her fourth this season. As a freshman, Nicole posted a career-best in the 500-yard freestyle. As a junior, Nicole swam career-best times in the 1000-yard and 1650-yard freestyle events. This season, Nicole is a team captain and is swimming in distance freestyle events. Nicole is the daughter of Staci and Sam Dennis.

DANIELLE MILLER is a pre-physical therapy major from Van Wert, Ohio and is a graduate of Van Wert High School. Danielle who is known on the team as "D-Quest", has earned three varsity letters and will earn her fourth this season. She joins Nicole Dennis and Nic Null as team captains. As a freshman, Danielle posted career-best times in the 100-yard free, 200-yard free, 500-yard free, 1000-yard free, and 1650-yard free. As a sophomore, Danielle swam team-bests in the 500-yard freestyle and 1000-yard freestyle events. This season, Danielle swims the 50, 200, 500, 1000, and 1650-yard freestyle, and the 100-yard butterfly. Danielle is the daughter of Paula and Gary Miller.

-- More Senior Profiles on the Other Side --

NIC NULL is a biology and pre-dentistry double major from Shelby, Ohio and is a graduate of Mansfield Saint Peter's High School. Nic is a team captain this season and will earn his fourth varsity letter. As a freshman, Nic received All-OAC honors as a member of the OAC Championship 200-yard medley relay team and as a runner-up on the 200-yard freestyle relay team. Both relay teams set school records. Nic was also on the record-setting 200-yard freestyle relay team as a sophomore. As a junior, Nic set career-bests in the 50, 100, and 200-yard freestyle events. This season, Nic swims the 50, 100, and 200-yard freestyle events and is on the 200-yard medley relay. Nic was selected as the OAC Male Swimmer of the Week for first time in his career for his efforts in the Yellow Jackets season-opening 138-87 win against Wilmington College on October 29, 2011. Nic is the son of Jill Null.

ZACH PFEIL is a marketing and spanish double major from Sandusky, Ohio and graduated from Perkins High School. Zach has earned three varsity letters and will earn his fourth this season. As a freshman, Zach posted career-best times in the 1000-yard freestyle and 200-yard breaststroke. As a sophomore, Zach recorded personal best times in the 50-yard breast and 50-yard freestyle events. As a junior, Zach swam a career-best times in the 100-yard breaststroke and 200 and 400 individual medley events. This season, Zach swims in the 100 and 200-yard breaststroke and 200 and 400-yard individual medley events. Zach is the son of Iva and Don Pfeil.

*****

Baldwin-Wallace College again would like to thank Sarah, Katie, Nicole, Danielle, Nic and Zach as well as their parents for all of their hard work, dedication and commitment to Yellow Jacket Volleyball. Your efforts have truly made a difference both on campus and on the athletic field.

The College also would like to wish each of you all the best of luck in their future endeavors and hope that even after graduation next spring that you come back and visit us often. You will always be a Yellow Jacket for Life (YJ4L).