

Duane Sheldon — Baldwin-Wallace College Head Men's Basketball Coach

Head Coach Duane Sheldon completed his second season as the Head Men's Basketball Coach at Baldwin-Wallace College in 2009-10. Coach Sheldon is the 21st men's basketball coach in the history of the College and he succeeded his mentor, Steve Bankson, who retired in 2008, after 28 seasons as basketball coach and athletic director. In 2009-10, the Yellow Jackets finished at 14-12 overall, improving their win total by six from the 2008-09 season. B-W completed the Ohio Athletic Conference regular season at 9-9 overall and tied for fifth-place in the standings. Sheldon, a former student-athlete, 1993 graduate and assistant coach under Bankson, returned to his alma mater after spending six years building Heidelberg College's program into an Ohio Athletic Conference champion. Sheldon, who also earned his master's degree in 2000 from Ashland University, is no stranger to Berea. He is a 1989 graduate of Strongsville High School and began his coaching career at local Middleburg Heights Midpark High School, then joined Bankson's staff at B-W before coaching at Heidelberg College. At Heidelberg from 2002-2008, Sheldon built the Student Prince basketball program into the 2007-2008 OAC Tournament champion. With its OAC tourney title, Heidelberg and Sheldon received the OAC's automatic berth in the 2008 NCAA Division III National Tournament. As a student-athlete at B-W, Sheldon was a three-time letterwinner, a co-captain and a first-team Academic All-OAC pick. He also was tabbed as the Best Defensive Player. In coming back to Greater Cleveland, Sheldon returns to the sites of earlier triumphs as a basketball star at Strongsville High School and in his first head coaching position at Midpark High School in Middleburg Heights. During his five seasons at Midpark, he was named the Associated Press Northeast Ohio Coach of the Year in 1997-1998 for leading his team to an 18-4 record and was the Pioneer Athletic Conference Coach of the Year. The following season, his team compiled a 21-2 campaign and a final ranking of eighth in the Ohio AP poll. Under his leadership, Midpark High achieved the best record in school history and broke more than 80 school records. His career record was 78-42.
