Baldwin-Wallace Faces Capital in the Quarterfinals of the 2007 Ohio Athletic Conference Tournament

The Winner advances to OAC Semifinals to face the Ohio Northern-Marietta Winner

BEREA, OHIO-- Tonight, the number four seed Baldwin-Wallace College Yellow Jackets will host the number five seed Capital University in the quarterfinals of the 2007 Ohio Athletic Conference Tournament at the Rudolph Ursprung Gymnasium in Berea.

The winner of this quarterfinal match will advance to Friday's OAC Tournament semifinals at 7:00 p.m. to face the winner of the number eight seed Marietta College versus number one seed Ohio Northern University match that is also being played tonight at the ONU Sports Center in Ada.

B-W and Capital met back on Oct. 4 in Berea. The Yellow Jackets won that match by the scores of, 30-26, 30-28, 18-30 and 30-26. B-W was led by senior outside hitter Kelsey Hills' 32 kills while Capital was led by senior middle hitter's Jessie Hampson's 18 kills.

B-W enters this match with a 18-13

overall mark after going 1-2 at the Emory (Ga.) University National Invitational last weekend in Atlanta, Georgia.

B-W is led by Hills who leads the team with 428 kills, is second with 412 digs and 37 solo blocks and third with a .276 hitting percentage. Junior, middle hitter Maria DePeters is first with 57 solo blocks and second with 413 kills. Senior libero Meggie Marten is first in digs with 643 (5.74/game) and in service aces with 58. Freshman setter Casey Passen runs the Yellow Jacket offense and is first with 1,293 set assists (11.54/game).

Capital enters the tournament with a 20-8 overall record after defeating arch-rival Otterbein College on Oct. 27 in Columbus.

The Crusaders are led by Hampson with a team-high 470 kills and 76 solo blocks. Sophomore setter Jenna Zumberger runs the offense and is first with 911 set assists (8.76/game) while junior defensive specialist Jackie Helms leads in digs with 438 (4.21/game).
