Yellow Jacket Wrestling Team Has High Hopes in 2003-2004

BEREA, OHIO -- Veteran Head Coach Rich Fleming returns 14 lettermen and eight starters from last year's team that finished 8-6 in dual meets, 2-4 in the rugged Ohio Athletic Conference duals, and placed a surprising second at the OAC Tournament. The Yellow Jackets have received respect in this year's preseason and are ranked 29th in the Brute/Adidas Division III national poll.

Leading the way this winter will be sophomore 125/133 pounder Jared Selover who was 35-8 last year and was fourth at the Division III national meet at 125 pounds. In addition to Selover being a team-leader, senior 165-pounder and team captain Joe Heiland returns after compiling a 32-7 record, winning an OAC individual title and earning a trip to the national tourney along with Selover.

Another top returnee is sophomore 197-pounder Devin Carman who was 24-7 a year ago and lost in the OAC championship match. Also, senior 141-pounder Sayre Wuhr is healthy and back as is true for junior 184-pounder Sterling Sebek. Wuhr had a 15-7 record and placed third at last year's OAC tourney. Sebek, who began the season strong at 10-4 before suffering an injury, returns healthy. In addition to Selover at 125 pounds, freshmen Eddie Waters, a two-time Ohio High School Athletic Association state qualifier, Brian Brochetti and Dan Schierloh and sophomore Mike Ham all are expected to push for mat time. Ham had a 4-13 mark at 125 a year ago.

At 133 pounds, look for Selover to compete with sophomores Eric Jaynes and Mike Munroe and freshman Joe Smith for mat time. Jaynes started at 141 for most of last year but is a more natural 133-pounder. He has a 7-15 mark at 141 and by moving down a weight should be better. Munroe split time between 133 and 141 pounds in 2002-2003 and had a 3-12 record.

Wuhr is projected to be the starter at 141, but he is expected to be battled for mat time by possibly Jaynes, sophomore Chris Harrold and freshmen RayShawn Eatmon and Mike Hasapis. In addition to his 15-7 mark last year, Wuhr was 17-10 as a sophomore. Harrold was a backup 133-pounder last year who had a 1-4 record. At 149 pounds, junior Scott Conrath is the projected starter but will receive competition from freshman Randy Buchanan, sophomore Phillip Peak and transfers Thamir Rimbart and David Sarosy. Conrath was the starter last year and had an 8-10 mark. Peak split time between 149 and 157 pounds and was 7-17 last year. Rimbart transferred into B-W after spending last year at Iowa Central Junior College. Sarosy, who placed sixth at the OHSAA state meet two years ago, comes to B-W from Bowling Green State University.

At 157 pounds, sophomore transfer Steve Vaughn and possibly Conrath and Peak are expected to compete for the starting role. He is right at home at B-W. Heiland will be a leader and should start at 165 pounds. He is a four-year varsity mainstay who has a 44-12 career mark. Competing with Heiland for mat time at 165 pounds will be sophomore Roger Roman. Roman had an 8-8 mark a year ago and was solid. He is expected to be even better this year.

Fleming will have three experienced grapplers competing for the starting role at 174 pounds. Heading the list are senior James Payne and sophomore T. Terry. They will battle with freshmen Trevor Grey, and football player and wrestler Tom Sustersic. Payne was 6-15 overall and Terry, who was considered the starter most of the year, was 12-14 overall. At 184 pounds, Sebek is expected to be the starter. At 197 pounds, Carman is a solid starter who has the ability to both win an OAC title and compete at the national meet. At heavyweight, freshman football player Michael Johnson, sophomore Bryan Kmetz and senior Israel Martin will battle for the starting role. All three are competing for the first time.

"We have both experience and inexperience," said Fleming. "We have incoming freshmen with talent and transfers who can both add depth and make a difference. This is as talented a group of wrestlers as we have had in my 16 years at B-W. We are looking forward to the competition in the upcoming season."
