The Baldwin-Wallace College Women Set an Ohio Athletic Conference Record With its Seventh Straight All-Sports Championship

BEREA, OHIO - - The Baldwin-Wallace College women captured an Ohio Athletic Conference record seventh straight All-Sports Championship in 2004-2005. The Yellow Jacket men finished third in the 10-school OAC.

The women totalled 65.25 points to defeat second place Otterbein (56.42) by 8.83 points. The Yellow Jacket men had 59.59 points and trailed the champion Otterbein Cardinals by 3.91 points.

The Yellow Jacket women previously broke their own OAC record of five straight OAC All-Sports titles which they had done twice. The mark was originally set from 1991-92 through 1995-96 and then tied prior to the 2003-2004 season with titles beginning in 1998-99 to the present.

Helping the women's cause were

OAC titles by the indoor and outdoor track & field teams .

The men's third place showing was bolstered by an OAC tennis title, a second place finish by the men's golf team and a fourth place finish by the men's soccer team who made its first-ever appearance in the four-team OAC Tournament in 2004.

The Facilities at Baldwin-Wallace College Are Among

The Baldwin-Wallace College student is afforded the opportunity to learn, exercise, practice and play in some of the finest facilities in small college athletics. In addition, as a student at B-W, each has an opportunity to use a group of facilities that are unparalleled in Division III athletics.

The Recreation Center with the Ursprung Gymnasium, Harrison Dillard Track and Natatorium, The George Finnie Stadium, the B-W Baseball Field, the "Pop" Collins Tennis Complex and other outdoor recreation and athletic areas at Baldwin-Wallace make the Yellow Jackets physical plant second to none among small colleges.

The Baldwin-Wallace College Recreation Center, dedicated on October 18, 1986, is a facility that benefits all B-W students, faculty, staff and alumni and is considered one of the top recreation facilities in the country.

The 150,000 square foot Rec Center serves as home for the health and physical education departments, all winter intercollegiate and intramural sports, as well as playing host for a number of amateur sporting events.

The Rec Center, which includes the Rudolph S. Ursprung Gymnasium, serves as the home of Yellow Jackets basketball, volleyball and wrestling teams. Ursprung Gymnasium, which has housed B-W basketball since 1949, received a complete renovation in 1986. In addition to B-W playing in the Ursprung Gym, the Ohio High School Athletic Association has long courts that can be used individually or in tandem for volleyball, basketball, tennis and other activities. On many occasions, the B-W basketball team has been playing a game while a wrestling match or an intramural basketball game was taking place in used the B-W facility for its sectional and district tournaments for boys.

The fieldhouse consists of a 200-meter, six-lane track that is named for 1949 B-W graduate and four-time Olympic gold medalist Harrison Dillard. The track, with its Mondo surface, is both fast and comfortable for the walker, jogger or serious runner. Pits for the field events are also incorporated. The track surrounds three multi-purpose the Rec Center fieldhouse.

The Harrison Dillard Track, along with the multi-purpose courts, have been home for the B-W indoor track teams, the John Summa Invitational Wrestling Tournament, the Ohio Sports Festival (basketball and wrestling venues) and many local high school track meets.

Also in the Rec Center is the B-W Natatorium, home to the Yellow Jacket

The Baldwin-Wallace College Natatorium is home to Yellow Jacket swimming and diving. The pool is also available to all B-W students and receives use by the community and elderly.

The Harrison Dillard Track in the B-W Fieldhouse is a six-lane, 200-meter oval that has served as the site of many B-W, OAC, high school and amateur championship meets.

the Best for Any Small College in the Country

In 1998 The George Finnie Stadium was filled with more than 10,000 fans to watch the Yellow Jackets play football. It is known as the "Magic Carpet." It has also served as the site for five Division III national track meets, the Pan Am Games qualifying meet, the Ohio Games and the A.A.U. Junior Olympic championships. It seats 8,100 fans comfortably.

swimming and diving teams. The facility includes a 25-yard, six-lane pool with a one-meter diving board. The movable pool bottom has adaptive physical therapy applications and can be used by the disabled.

As part of the renovation of Ursprung, chairback seating and a new media center were constructed while training and physical therapy, laundry and eight locker rooms were added. Other features include a room for news media as well as exhibit and storage areas for the B-W Athletic Archives. The Archives give students, alumni, parents, friends and visitors to Baldwin-Wallace a glimpse of the rich tradition and heritage of Yellow Jacket teams and athletic greats.

The Finnie Stadium (pictured above) is one of the nations best small college stadiums for football and track and field. The Yellow Jacket men's and women's soccer teams also play at Finnie.

B-W has already hosted three NCAA Division III national championship track meets, numerous NCAA and Ohio High School Athletic Association football play-off games as well as being the home field to both Berea High School and Middleburg Heights Midpark High School. The Ohio Sports Festival/Ohio State Games also uses Finnie as both a regional and state championship site.

The B-W Baseball Field is located on the campus within walking distance of the student dormitories. The facility has a manicured playing surface and seating for approximately 200 fans. The B-W Baseball Field has been the host site for four OAC Baseball Tournaments and is home to the nationally-ranked Yellow Jacket baseball squad.

The "Pop" Collins Tennis complex is named in honor of former B-W tennis coach and teacher Arthur Worth Collins, the father of nationally renowned sportswriter and television tennis analyst Arthur "Bud" Collins '51. The facility is on campus and includes six courts which are lighted for night play.

In addition, the Yellow Jacket softball team plays at the Cuyahoga County Fairgrounds Field. Last spring was the first season for the Yellow Jackets at their new field.

Does such a strong group of facilities benefit the Yellow Jacket women's basketball program? Definitely! Practice time is available in the Ursprung Gym or the fieldhouse. That means the men and women can practice at the same time without conflict. Players have a wide variety of options for preseason and post season weight and conditioning programs.

"The entire Rec Center is a plus to our program," says head coach Cheri Harrer. "The playing, practice and dress facilities are among the finest in Division III. Having a number of courts in the fieldhouse gives us the opportunity to work with a greater number of players in our varsity and junior varsity programs.

"It is one of the finest training centers of any small college in the nation," says Harrer. "We feel the Rec Center has answered the needs of the B-W community."

The student-athlete is afforded the best in equipment to use in B-W's weight and training rooms. B-W also benefits from its affiliation with the Cleveland Clinic Sports Medicine Division. A clinic doctor is at virtually every athletic event.

The Ohio Athletic Conference; the third oldest conference in the nation

TWINSBURG, OHIO -- Entering its 102nd year, the Ohio Athletic Conference will look to continue its prominence during the 2004-05 year. In 2003-2004, the OAC was once again represented well at the national level, both academically and athletically.

During the 2003-04 season the OAC advanced 11 teams to the NCAA Division III "Sweet 16", including Wilmington College winning the National Title in women's basketball. Mount Union College finished runner-up in football and the John Carroll University men's basketball squad finished third. Three teams finished in the "Elite Eight" at the NCAA's: Ohio Northern University in volleyball, Muskingum College in softball and Wilmington in indoor track and field; and five teams ended their seasons in the "Sweet 16": Baldwin-Wallace College in football, Wilmington in women's soccer, JCU in men's soccer and wrestling and Otterbein College in men's golf. Individually, Mount Union's Eddis Singleton and Wilmington's Emily Herring both became national champions in their respective events, the 50-yard freestyle in swimming and the high jump in track and field.

Individually, the Conference was represented by 56 All-Americans, 32 men and 24 women, and 13 Academic All-Americans to go along with a bevy of regional and national honors for our student-athletes and coaches. The Conference also had an athlete earn CoSIDA Academic All-America Team Member-of-the-Year honors in her respective sport.

The OAC, the third oldest conference in college athletics, is predated only by the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1888) and the Big Ten (1895). The Conference is older than the World Series and even the NCAA itself and has survived two world wars, the Great Depression, the Korean War and the Vietnam Conflict. From a modest beginning of six charter members in 1902, the OAC grew to as many as 24 members in the mid-1920s.

Through the years a total of 30 colleges and universities at one time or another have been members of the OAC. Currently the Conference consists of 10 members, including Baldwin-Wallace College, Capital University, Heidelberg College, John Carroll University, Marietta College, Mount Union College, Muskingum College, Ohio Northern University, Otterbein College and Wilmington College. Wilmington became the 31st OAC member school, on July 1, 2000.

In the OAC's first year of existence, 1902, the first Conference champion was crowned. Case Tech won the football title with a 5-0-0 record. Outdoor track was added a year later and a third sport, cross country, became a Conference sport in 1914. More sports were steadily added to the OAC's repertoire throughout the years, culminating in the addition of women's sports in 1984. The Conference currently sponsors championships in 21 sports, 11 men's and 10 women's.

The enrollments at the 10 OAC institutions range from 1,200 to 4,500. All of the schools were founded in the 19th century and have long and outstanding academic reputations. While maintaining these high academic standards, Ohio Athletic Conference athletic teams and athletes have consistently enjoyed a great deal of success on a regional and national level. The athletic competition is viewed not as an end in itself, but as an extension of the educational programs.

For more information on the Ohio Athletic Conference, please contact OAC Information Director Julie Work by phone at (330) 963-0444, FAX at (330) 963-0459, or e-mail her at jwork@oac.org. ## 19-Year Veteran Jack Bethlenfalvy Wins 200th Career Match at Baldwin-Wallace College as its Women's Tennis Coach

By: Matthew Florjancic

BEREA, OHIO — In a society that is so focused on winning, it is rare to find coaches who lead an athletic program for long periods of time without jumping from job to job to job. That is why the Baldwin-Wallace College women's tennis team has been fortunate to have a great coach who has experienced success and has no intention of leaving Berea for a bigger program

For 19 years, Yellow Jacket Head Coach Jack Bethlenfalvy has led the Yellow Jackets to 16 winning seasons and the 1999 Ohio Athletic Conference Championship. On Monday, April 4, Bethlenfalvy won the 200th career match at B-W when his squad defeated Cleveland cross-town rival Case Western Reserve University, 8-1, in University Circle.

"Jack Bethlenfalvy is always a very upbeat person who loves the game of tennis, loves to teach the game of tennis and is a great mentor to the women who play tennis at Baldwin-Wallace College," said B-W Women's Athletic Director Cheri Harrer.

Harrer ought to know how Bethlenfalvy feels. She has won more than 300 games as B-W's women's basketball coach the past 15 years.

"Jack is a very grounded person who loves B-W," said Harrer. "Jack has been on the west side of Cleveland for many years. We are very lucky to have him at B-W and hope he remains here as an instructor, our tennis coach and a facility manager until he decides to retire. He just does an outstanding job in everything he does."

Bethlenfalvy's rise to success started when he grew up around the game in Iowa. He credits his mother with getting him involved in playing sports.

"I grew up in a small town and we lived one block from the public tennis courts," Bethlenfalvy said. "I spent most of my time in the summer playing tennis. My mother encouraged me and supported me, and that made a big difference."

Although he did not have a tennis team at his high school, Bethlenfalvy found other ways to gain experience in the game.

"Our high school did not have a tennis team," Bethlenfalvy stated. "I spent most of my time playing junior tournaments in the Tri-State area of Iowa, Illinois and Missouri."

Bethlenfalvy took this experience to NCAA Division I Kent State University where he made the team as a walk-on.

"I was a walk-on and had a good first season," Bethlenfalvy said. "I was lucky enough to receive a scholarship the following year."

Bethlenfalvy made the most of his opportunities at Kent State. He was a captain of the team, the Most Valuable Player of the Golden Flashes and a Mid-American Conference champion before receiving his degree.

Bethlenfalvy was honored to receive the awards while at Kent.

"We had a close team that worked hard, so [the MVP] could have gone to anyone," he said. "It was a great feeling to win the MAC, especially since it was only the second time it happened [in school history]."

Bethlenfalvy appreciated the titles and was glad to have the opportunity to travel down south over the spring breaks.

"I loved playing tennis, traveling and spending time seeing other schools," Bethlenfalvy said. "I remember taking our spring trips to North and South Carolina. The competition was good and the traveling was fun."

Upon his 1968 graduation from Kent State University, Bethlenfalvy was a ranked doubles player in Northeast Ohio.

He also began his coaching career at local Parma Senior High School.

Since 1974, Bethlenfalvy has been a member of the United States Professional Tennis Association and the United States Tennis Association. In 1975, Bethlenfalvy graduated from the Tennis Institute in New York City.

Bethlenfalvy has served as a tennis pro at several area clubs. From 1974-77, he was the head tennis pro at the Big Creek Racket Club. Bethlenfalvy also served as the tennis pro from 1977-1999 at the River Run Racket Club in Strongsville. It was during that time that Bethlenfalvy became interested in Baldwin-Wallace.

"Over the years, I had some of the women who played tennis at B-W work with me on lessons and improving their game," said Bethlenfalvy, who recently received congratulations from another former B-W tennis alumnus, ESPN tennis analyst Arthur "Bud" Collins.

"When the opportunity opened up and they were looking for a tennis coach, I made the jump from high school to college.

"This has been a great place to work and with so many good people," said Bethlenfalvy. "Our young women are just a joy to coach."

Since taking over the program at B-W, Bethlenfalvy has compiled his 208-157 record and is the winningest women's tennis coach in school history. In 1992, his B-W squad finished with a 13-1 overall mark which is the best single-season mark in school history.

Bethlenfalvy, who led the team to a 1999 OAC title, was named the 1999 Ohio Athletic Conference Women's Tennis Coach of the Year.

quickly to appreciate his style of coaching.

"[Coach] knows exactly when to get down to business, but [he] also makes sure that our time in college on the team is fun," said first singles player and defending OAC Women's Tennis Player of the Year, Andrea Isaac of New Philadelphia. "Jack has helped me raise my production by not placing too much pressure on myself."

"I thrive with him as my coach [because of] his pure encouragement and excitement about playing," Isaac stated. "If I am having a problem in my game Jack helps me fix it and is incredibly patient." Bethlenfalvy loves winning titles, but is gratified by his relationships with the players.

"After all the time and practice, winning matches and the championship is rewarding," said Bethlenfalvy. "However, the most satisfaction comes from the interaction and rapport I have with my players."

"Each young woman who plays tennis at a school like Baldwin-Wallace does so because she loves the sport and enjoys playing tennis," said Bethlenfalvy. "They are here for the love of the game. It is such a rewarding experience having the opportunity to see each of them succeed not only on the tennis court but in life in general. I wouldn't trade that experience."

Bethlenfalvy believes the 2004-2005 Jackets have a great opportunity to win an OAC title this spring.

"We have a young, talented team so that goal [of an OAC championship] is within reach," he said. "We just need to continue to get better and improve each time we play. We are looking forward to the next four weeks of our season."

When Bethlenfalvy decides it is time to hang up the whistle, he wants people to remember his career and the way his players handled the game.

"I want people to remember that my players know how to handle winning and losing," he stated. "Winning is usually easy, but losing can be difficult."

"We are lucky we are able to run around on a tennis court and play game we love," Bethlenfalvy added. "I hope my players are able to look back with great memories of playing tennis at Baldwin-Wallace."

You can bet that many people will remember Coach Jack Bethlenfalvy and all that he achieved too.

During his 19-year career, Head Coach Jack Bethlenfalvy has led the Yellow Jackets to 16 winning seasons and the 1999 Ohio Athletic Conference Championship. He has also accumulated a 208-157 career record as head coach.

Medina High Grad and Baldwin-Wallace College Freshman Krista Marshall Adds Depth and Chemistry to the Women's Tennis Team

By: Matthew Florjancic

BEREA, OHIO — Nineteen year Head Coach Jack Bethlenfalvy, a recent winner of his 200th career match when the Baldwin-Wallace College women's tennis team defeated Cleveland cross-town rival Case Western Reserve University, 8-1, on April 4, has seen his program undergo a youth movement in the past three years.

One of Bethlenfalvy's solid youngsters is freshman fifth singles and second doubles player Krista Marshall, a graduate of Medina Senior High School.

"Krista is part of a very young team that is very talented," said Bethlenfalvy. "When we entered the year, my thought was that we would be good this year, but a year away from really contending for the Ohio Athletic Conference title because we were so very young. But our freshman, including Krista have gotten better and better and now we feel that we have a great shot to win it this year."

Marshall is part of a Yellow Jacket lineup that does not include a senior.

Sophomore Andrea Isaac, the 2004 OAC Player of the Year, is at number one singles and freshman Megan Glassburn plays second singles and teams with Isaac as the first doubles team. Freshman Tiffany Allison plays No.3 and juniors Ashley Sanders and Kristen Thomson alternate at No.4. Marshall is at No.5 and junior Lizz Moore plays No.6.

This group of youngsters are not playing like youngsters as they currently own a 12-3 overall and perfect 3-0 OAC record.

"Our record is indicative of the way we have played," said Bethlenfalvy. "One of our wins is against Division II Ashland University. Again, the best part of this team is that there is not one senior and all of the women get along well together. We have great team chemistry."

Marshall, a 19-year old health promotions and education major, began her tennis career at an early age.

"I started when I was younger just for fun," said Marshall, who is 7-10 overall in singles play and 14-4 in doubles. "I kept playing all my life and started joining teams."

Marshall took this early beginning to Medina Senior High School of the Pioneer Conference.

While in high school, Marshall played junior varsity basketball for a season. During the springtime, she played four years of tennis and garnered four letters.

Along with the team honors, Marshall earned several accolades.

During her four-year career, she was a four-time All-Pioneer Conference first-team selection and a three-year All-Medina County Gazette pick.. Marshall was also chosen to the Pioneer Conference All-Academic team and was given the Medina Booster Club Unsung Hero Award.

It was during her senior year at Medina where Marshall set a school record with a 17-8 mark. She went undefeated in the Pioneer Conference.

Marshall, along with individual success, played on many great teams.

"All four years in high school, we won the Pioneer Conference," said Marshall, who most recently has combined with Tiffany Allison to compile a 12-1 mark between second and third doubles for the Yellow Jackets. "We had a great team my senior year. The whole team got along so well. That is the same way it has been at B-W."

Bethlenfalvy noticed

her game and knew she could bring something special to the B-W program.

"Krista has a great attitude and is always smiling," said Bethlenfalvy. "She has great strokes and when she is playing steady, she is tough to beat."

"Krista also is a good student, both in the classroom and on the tennis court," said Bethlenfalvy. "She always wants to learn, to improve to become better. That is the type of student and player we want at Baldwin-Wallace College. We are very happy to have her in our program."

Before choosing a college, Marshall looked at several colleges, including other OAC schools. However, when it came time to make a decision, she chose B-W.

"The tennis program here [at B-W] is good," said Marshall. "I came up to one of the matches [last spring] and the girls were really supportive of each other. That is the type of team I like to be a part of."

"I am glad I made this decision [to come to B-W]," Marshall added.

When she got to college, Marshall noticed some differences between the high school and collegiate levels.

"The people are all good at the college level," she said. "They all really want to play. It makes you a better player too because you can't take any opponent for granted."

Marshall feels that Coach Bethlenfalvy and her new teammates helped make the adjustment from high school to college less stressful.

"The coach and the girls on the team made it easy," said Marshall. "I came to practice and they wanted to get to know me and were really supportive. It has really become a comfortable situation and has made it better for me both in the classroom and on the court."

When she first put on the Brown & Gold of the Yellow Jackets, Marshall felt ready to show her skills.

"I was really excited," she said. "I was ready to show people that I really wanted to be here to play tennis."

Since she started the season, Marshall's teammates began to notice her attitude and abilities.

"Krista is a fun-loving, sweet girl,"

Freshman No. 5 singles player Krista Marshall (Medina/Senior) has made an immediate impact for the Yellow Jackets. She and fellow freshman Tiffany Allison have a combined 15-2 record alternating between No. 2 and No. 3 doubles so far this season.

said Isaac, the school record-holder for wins in a season by a freshman with 19 (a 19-1 slate en route to player-of-the-year accolades). "Krista is always lifting people up with her spirit and enthusiasm. She is the first one to give you a high-five when you are down and need encouragement. She is a great teammate."

Before a match, Marshall likes to loosen up and talk with her teammates.

"I like a good warm-up beforehand," said Marshall. "All of us get together and talk about what we want to do to win. You just have to mentally prepare yourself and stay emotionally calm."

Although she has experienced success at the college level, Marshall has the goal of becoming a better player.

"I have not played as well in singles as I am capable, but I definitely want to win the majority of the matches," Marshall said. "For doubles, my partner [Tiffany Allison] and I want to go undefeated in the OAC and so far we have accomplished that goal and have six OAC matches left to go."

Marshall and the rest of her teammates set the goal of winning an

Baldwin-Wallace College Sophomore and Reigning OAC Women's Tennis Player of the Year Andrea Isaac Looks to Tie and Break Mark

By: Matthew Florjancic

BEREA, OHIO — Young athletes are usually viewed as the future of the program. For the Baldwin-Wallace College women's tennis team and sophomore first singles player Andrea Isaac the future is now.

Isaac, a resident of New Philadelphia and a graduate of New Philadelphia High School, is the Yellow Jackets' first singles player and the reigning Ohio Athletic Conference Player of the Year. A year ago, Isaac became the first B-W women's tennis player and the first freshman in OAC history to win that honor.

Winning 19 matches as a freshman and winning player-of-the-year accolades did not surprise Yellow jacket 19-year veteran Head Coach Jack Bethlenfalvy.

"She has tremendous power and a strong forehand that she hits winners with from the baseline," said Bethlenfalvy, who recently (April 4) won his 100th career match. "She has great control of her strokes which allows her to exploit her opponents' weaknesses while taking advantage of her strengths."

The only question was how well Isaac and her team would play as a sophomore. Isaac has easily put to rest the old adage of a sophomore slump by compiling a 19-5 record at No.1 singles and leading the team to a 15-4 overall and perfect 5-0 OAC record entering its match tomorrow (Saturday, April 16) at Muskingum College.

The 19 wins this season matches

Isaac's total of a year ago when she finished 19-1 overall. It also is one win shy of tying Theresa Olenick's B-W school-record of 20 wins which was set in 1997. In addition, the 15 wins by the team this season has already tied the school single-season record of 15 set in 1999 when it was 15-2 overall and won the OAC title.

"Andrea is our leader and our players watch her and learn from her," said Bethlenfalvy, who enters the Muskingum match with a 204-153 overall. "We have a very young and talented team and Andrea is a key to our success. No doubt about it."

Isaac began playing tennis at a young age.

"I started playing tennis as early as I could hold up a racquet," Isaac said. "My parents owned a tennis club and my dad was the tennis pro. He made sure I was always playing and being active and involved."

Isaac took this early start to the game to New Philadelphia High School of the East Central Ohio League.

While in the Red & Black of the Quakers, Isaac was a four-year letter winner. In addition to those honors, Isaac led the team to four straight ECOL championships. She also qualified for the Ohio High School Athletic Association District Tournament all four years she was in high school.

During her senior season, Isaac was a first-team All-East Central Ohio League selection. She was also named the ECOL Player-of-the-Year.

Along with those accomplishments,

Isaac holds the school record for career wins with 88. She had a .889 winning percentage during her time as a Quaker.

After all of these achievements, Isaac fell short of one of her goals, a trip to the State Tennis Tournament.

"The biggest obstacle I faced was to making it to states in high school," Isaac said. "I was so close every time, but the Columbus schools were so tough to beat."

When deciding on a college, Isaac looked at Kent State and B-W. After looking at several factors, Isaac chose B-W.

"I looked at Kent State University to be in the school of music, but they did not have a tennis team," Isaac stated. "I chose B-W because I felt at home here."

"I loved the people the minute I stepped on the campus," Isaac added. "I am so glad I came to B-W."

Coach Bethlenfalvy is also happy Isaac chose B-W.

"I knew when I first talked to Andrea [Isaac] on her visit to Baldwin-Wallace that this was the kind of player I wanted on my team," Bethlenfalvy said. "She is dedicated, works hard, is team oriented and lifts everyone up with her."

When Isaac got to B-W, she noticed a large difference between her high school and college days.

"The easiest transition from high school to college was the independence," said Isaac. "I was so ready to be on my own."

"The most difficult part of the transition was that I missed my friends and family so much."

Isaac states that her mother, Jan, has been a big part of her success on the court.

"The biggest influence in my career has been my mother," said Isaac. "She has always supported me whether it be coming to the matches in 20 degree weather, bringing me a water bottle, or cheering."

When Isaac first put on the Brown & Gold of B-W, she felt "an extreme amount of pride."

During her first year at B-W, Isaac set a freshman record for wins with 19. In addition, her .950 winning percentage also was a single-season school-record.

"I had no idea until after my match that I broke the record for freshman wins in a season," Isaac said, who is 38-6 in her Yellow Jacket singles career. "I was excited and surprised."

I feel incredibly honored that I was named OAC Player-of-the-Year," Isaac said. "I never would have guessed that I would receive such an honor."

Sophomore No. 1 singles player Andrea Isaac (New Philadelphia) returns in 2004-2005 after being named Ohio Athletic Conference Women's Tennis Player of the Year as a freshman in 2003-2004.

Coach Bethlenfalvy is glad that Isaac's play was recognized and appreciated by people outside of the program.

"I am very happy for Andrea and proud that she was voted as the OAC Player-of-the-Year," Bethlenfalvy stated. "As a freshman, she defeated every team's best player."

"She certainly deserved the honor," Bethlenfalvy added. "After all her accomplishments, Andrea is still as humble as the first day I met her in the Admissions Office."

In addition to those 19 wins, Isaac registered a 16-6 mark in doubles. She was also given the OAC Women's Tennis Player-of-the-Week award on April 5, 2004. During that week, Isaac went 8-0 and garnering four wins in each singles and doubles action.

Isaac's doubles partner from last season, Sarah Juzwik '04, was impressed with her abilities on the court.

"She keeps her head in tense situations," Juzwik stated. "She is able to forget mistakes [instead of] dwelling on them."

"My main goal is to lead Baldwin-Wallace College to an OAC title," said

Isaac. "Our motivation at practice is to talk about OAC Championship records. Individually, I would like to break the record for most wins in a season and in a career."

Coach Bethlenfalvy feels that Isaac has a great chance at the record.

"If Andrea stays healthy, it will not be a question of if but when she will break the all-time record at B-W," Bethlenfalvy said. "She will be breaking the B-W record in the number one spot where she will be going up against every school's very best player, which will make the accomplishment even greater."

Isaac also hopes the team accomplishes many things.

Isaac has a 38-6 career singles record and is only in her second season of collegiate women's tennis. She set school records for wins in a season as a freshman with 19 in 2003-2004 and winning percentage (.950).

After Isaac is done rewriting the B-W tennis record books, she wants to be remembered for her love of the game.

"The pure enjoyment I feel when I am playing is what motivates me to play," said Isaac. "I love tennis and I also love my team."

Publicizing The Yellow Jacket Women's Tennis Student-Athlete;

Every Baldwin-Wallace student-athlete is treated equally and fairly by the media

To The Parent's of Prospective B-W Women's Tennis Players

The Baldwin-Wallace College sports information office is pleased to be able to service all media who request information concerning Yellow Jacket athletic teams, coaches and student-athletes.

Members of the media are asked to contact the B-W Office of College Relations and Sports Information by either telephone or facsimile machine for the latest in team and individual information.

B-W Sports Information Numbers

Phone: (440) 826-2327 or 2325; Fax: (440) 826-2329
e-mail: SID Kevin Ruple at kruple@bw.edu

The Baldwin-Wallace College Women's Tennis student-athlete is one of the best publicized in all of small college and NCAA Division III athletics. Several factors help this to happen.

Its location, its national and conference affiliation and philosophy of athletics, its administration and coaches and its support of the student-athlete all play large roles in telling others about B-W and the successes of its student-athletes.

Baldwin-Wallace College is a small, private, liberal arts college located 12 miles southwest of Cleveland, Ohio. While being in the small and progressive local community of Berea,

B-W student-athletes benefit from being close to a major urban area such as Greater Cleveland/Akron. B-W athletics receive support both in Cleveland and Akron and in the Berea community itself.

Being a member of the prestigious Ohio Athletic Conference and playing NCAA Division III athletics also is an advantage. Coaches who are teachers first forge a solid commitment to the Division III philosophy of the student-athlete. Baldwin-Wallace also is proud of its athletic heritage and the fact that it has produced the third most small college CoSIDA-GTE College Division Academic All-Americans since 1984. In 1997, B-W had three Academic All-Americans, including men's basketball player Kevin Braaten (Strongsville, Ohio) '97. The year prior, men's basketball player Brian Higley '96 (Stow, Ohio) was tabbed as a first-team Academic All-American. Overall, the Yellow Jacket men's program has produced four Academic All-American student-athletes since head coach Steve Bankson took over the program.

Support in terms of facilities, equipment and transportation and in staff provides the Baldwin-Wallace student-athlete with a luxury not enjoyed at many other schools.

One part of that support is in the area of sports information. A diligent staff of B-W sport information student assistants and sport management majors work with the director to publicize B-W and its coaches and student-athletes in 20 NCAA Division III sports.

The students learn first-hand about publicizing a program by updating the internet website, writing hometown press releases and doing feature stories, doing game and cumulative statistics as well as statistical analysis, game and special event programs, recruiting brochures and media guides, contacting local, state and national media sources prior to and after each game and promoting and administering special events during athletic contests.

Each Yellow Jacket Women's Tennis student-athlete receives a preseason, mid-season and postseason hometown press release which is sent to the individual student-athlete hometown newspaper. When the student-athletes fill out a preseason questionnaire, each is asked to list his or her hometown newspaper.

After each women's tennis match, the internet website is updated, a FAX is sent to B-W's base of local, state and national media that regularly cover or have requested B-W coverage. In addition, hometown facsimile messages about individual performances are also sent either the night of the contest or the next day.

The day following an athletic event, statistics are updated and made available to all requesting the information.

Campus radio station WBWC, 88.3 FM, broadcasts all home and away football and basketball games as well as covering all other Yellow Jacket sporting events, press conferences or announcements on a selected basis. All Yellow Jacket men's and women's basketball games are also broadcast over the internet website at www.bw.edu/athletics. A number of former B-W student broadcasters have gone to successful careers in the Greater Cleveland area, both in radio and in television. In addition, the four local commercial television stations and numerous radio stations do game coverage and feature interviews on a selected basis.

The Baldwin-Wallace College student-athlete receives excellent local small college coverage both in terms of game coverage and hometown coverage by The Plain Dealer (Cleveland's major daily with a circulation of more than 500,000 homes), the Chronicle-Telegram (based in Elyria, Ohio), the Morning Journal (based in Lorain, Ohio), the Beacon-Journal (based in Akron, Ohio), the Medina County Gazette (based in Medina, Ohio), the Sun News-papers (Cleveland's largest weekly newspaper serving the Greater Cleveland area) and a number of other daily and weekly publications in Northeast Ohio.

Overall, the sports information office at Baldwin-Wallace College offers the student-athlete the opportunity to receive maximum exposure at the small college level. In addition to giving the Yellow Jacket student-athlete the most comprehensive coverage available at the NCAA Division III level, the B-W sports information student assistant garners solid skills in writing, communications, marketing, promotion and publication layout and design. Overall, 14 former SID student assistants have gone on to sports information careers at either the NCAA Division I and I-AA level such as the University of Texas, Arizona State University, the University of Nebraska, the University of Arkansas, the University of Florida, Monmouth (N.J.), Kent State University, Eastern Michigan University and others. Others are involved with professional teams such as the Kansas City Chiefs of the NFL and the Cleveland Force of the MISL.
