

Communication Instructor Position

Baldwin-Wallace College announces a one-year instructor position in its Communication Department beginning August 1, 2009. Qualified candidates will possess a Master's degree or a Ph.D. in a relevant field of study. A candidate close to degree completion can be considered. The ideal candidate must have 10 years of recent experience in corporate Public Relations (PR) communication.

The Department of Communication seeks an individual with an excellent teaching record and a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching in the following areas of Public Relations: PR Campaigns, PR Writing, Strategies of PR, Corporate PR and/or Crisis Communication. The successful candidate should be an active participant in professional PR organizations, such as PRSA or IABC. The successful candidate will teach Introduction to PR, PR Campaigns, Capstone in PR, PR Writing, and Corporate PR. In addition, the successful candidate will supervise the PR student organization, advise students in the major, and involve students in professional organizations and networking.

Founded in 1845, Baldwin-Wallace College is an independent, coeducational college in the liberal arts tradition. Located 15 miles southwest of downtown Cleveland, Baldwin-Wallace enrolls approximately 3,100 full-time undergraduate day students, 800 part-time students in evening and weekend programs, and 700 graduate students.

The College seeks to attract a culturally and academically diverse faculty. Baldwin-Wallace College is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate because of race, creed, age, disabilities, national origin, gender, gender identity/expression or sexual orientation in the administration of any policies or programs.

Applicants should email HR@bw.edu or mail a cover letter, Curriculum Vita, contact information for three professional references, and teaching evaluations (if available) to: Sam Ramirez, Assistant VP for Human Resources, Baldwin-Wallace College, 275 Eastland Road, Berea, Ohio 44017-2088. The review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
