In this course we'll read a range of eighteenth-century novels in order to consider the cultural anxieties that circulate around the popularization of prose fiction in the eighteenth century. We will pay particular attention to how sexuality becomes one of the focal concerns of writers and critics of novels. Possible texts that will be the basis of our study include works by Daniel Defoe, Eliza Heywood, Henry Fielding, Charlotte Lennox, Horace Walpole, and Jane Austen.	4	01:00PM-02:40PM	TTH	MART	208	A. In this class, our destinations include George Saunders's satirical amusement parks and Kelly Link's zombie-infested convenience stores. We will stomp around in these locations to examine what these stories say about American literature and also American life. We will read and examine approximately seven short-story collections, we will investigate the theme and style of these diverse works, and we will supply critical and creative written responses to the texts.	4	06:15PM-09:15PM	T	MART	209	D. Films/literature illustrating some of these puzzles will be discussed. LAC! Students will have the option of applying German language skills. Students who choose this option will meet weekly with instructor and other LAC participants for reading and discussion of articles by German metaphysicians.	4	09:20AM-10:25AM	MWF	MART	B9	K. Coble
PHL-371-S01	Adv Topics: Phl & Literature Preq: One Level 1 or Level 2 PHL course, LAS-200, or consent of the instructor.
