What happens during summer orientation?

Summer Orientation is an exciting opportunity to become more familiar with B-W – in the “calm” of the summer.

Students will have the opportunity to:

- Meet with current students, faculty and staff,
- Register for classes,
- Learn helpful information about the college experience,
- Interact with other new students who will join you in the fall,
- You will stay in one of the Residence Halls and get a sampling of college food and college fun!

What happens during Weekend of Welcome? (WOW)

Weekend of Welcome (WOW) is the weekend prior to the start of classes. It is a time for you to jump head first into your new role as a Baldwin-Wallace College Student. Students will have the opportunity to:

- Get information on campus clubs and organizations,
- Hear speakers that will help your transition into college life,
- Meet more B-W students!

We can't wait to meet you at your Orientation Session!
