BW Fight Song
Written by Katherine Olderman in 1928

Fight, Baldwin Wallace
Fight, Baldwin Wallace
Fight and win this game;
We’re cheering for you,
There’s glory for you,
We’re on the road to fame;
And in the battle,
We’ll prove our mettle,
We’re loyal, square, and brave.
Vict’ry will crown our might,
And in the breeze tonight
Our Brown and Gold shall wave!
Awww… JACKETs!

Baldwin Wallace, Hail Thy Name
Written by Laurel Wagner Rittenhouse in 1952

Baldwin Wallace, hail thy name,
Praise to thee we bring,
Where’er we go throughout the land,
Our loyalty we’ll sing;
Thy wisdom and thy friendship true
Will inspiration be,
Forever, Baldwin Wallace,
We pledge our hearts to thee.

YEARLY TRADITIONS

Your introduction to campus life will begin with the Summer Orientation and Week of Welcome, when music, inflatables, and cook-outs on the quad will help you and your new classmates break the ice. The following are some of the other campus traditions you will come to know and love.

Homecoming & Community and Family Day

Once two separate events, BW looks to combine Homecoming and Community Day into one unique, fun, and spirit filled event in 2018! Homecoming & Community and Family Day aims to bring our campus community together with alumni, families of current students, Berea and the surrounding suburbs in the spirit of everything that is Baldwin Wallace. There will be a parade, musical events, and food! Put on your brown and gold and come out to cheer the Yellow Jackets to victory!

Culture Night

Students from across the globe present an evening of international cuisine, song, dance, and other entertainment in the Union Ballroom.

Bach Festival

The Baldwin Wallace Bach Festival, the United States’ oldest collegiate Bach Festival, was founded in 1932 by longtime Director of the BW Conservatory, Professor Albert Riemenschneider, and his wife Selma. The Baldwin Wallace Festival Choir and Orchestra presented their first Bach Festival in June 1933. Since that time, the Bach Festival has been annual event at Baldwin Wallace University.

Dance Marathon

The mission of the Baldwin Wallace University Dance Marathon, in conjunction with the Elizabeth Glaser AIDS Foundation, is to unite the community in a tradition of hope that one day children infected with AIDS will be cured.

April Reign

April Reign weekend brings together fraternity, sorority, independent, Veteran, and commuter teams to compete for the title of April Reign Champions. Crowds of faculty, staff, students, alumni, and members of the surrounding communities cheer students on in obstacle course challenges, human pyramid building, tricycle races, and tug competitions, which take place both on campus and at the nearby Cleveland Metroparks. A concert or major entertainment event traditionally kicks off the weekend.
SPIRIT & TRADITION

History of Baldwin Wallace University
Since 1845, Baldwin Wallace University has pursued the goals of its pioneering founders, offering a superior, personalized education that fosters personal and professional excellence and prepares students as contributing, compassionate citizens. BW’s historic relationship with the United Methodist Church, demonstrated through core values of respect and integrity, remains an important thread in the fabric of the institution.

Founded With a Gift and Open Arms

Baldwin Wallace was founded with a gift from John Baldwin of “a five-acre campus, 30 village lots and 50 acres of land.” Baldwin, a wealthy quarry owner whose mother had been denied entry to an eastern university because she was a female, was joined by other business and civic leaders—James Wallace, Fletcher Hulet and Josiah Holbrook—as he launched Baldwin Institute, a school committed to education “regardless of race, gender, creed” or ability to pay. In fact, the institution’s first graduate, Maria Poe, was female. It became Baldwin University in 1856.

Baldwin University’s earliest classes included nearly as many women as men, and students who could not afford an education were offered jobs to help cover the cost of tuition.

Merging, Innovating and Growing

With the increasing numbers of German emigrants relocating to Berea to work in the quarries, a German department was created at Baldwin University to teach their children. In the 1860s, neighboring German Wallace College grew out of that department. An early cooperative agreement allowed students to take courses in both schools.

By 1913, Baldwin University and German Wallace College merged to create Baldwin-Wallace College, combining resources to create greater financially stability and strength.

As the merged BW continued to grow in enrollment and stature, the university created opportunities for adult learners. During World War II, BW housed a Navy V-12 program on campus. After the war, BW recognized the challenges faced by these returning students, and became an innovator by offering night classes so that the veterans could hold a job and support a family while completing a college degree. In the 1970s, BW also was among the first to offer weekend degree programs for adult students.
A Conservatory of Music is Born
In 1898, BW began a journey that would give birth to an internationally respected Conservatory of Music—one of the few in the nation housed in a liberal arts institution. That year, during his junior year at German Wallace College, Albert Riemenschnieder began teaching music. Upon his graduation in 1899, Riemenschneider was appointed head of the music department, a position he held until 1947.

In 1932, together with his wife, Selma, Riemenschnieder founded the Baldwin Wallace Bach Festival, which continues to receive acclaim as the nation’s oldest collegiate Bach Festival.

Program Evolution and a New Name
In the mid-1970s, BW introduced thriving graduate programs in business and education, which now are among the largest in Ohio. More recently, BW added graduate programs in Physician Assistant, Speech Pathology and Leadership in Higher Education. At the undergraduate level, BW currently offers 75 major areas of study in seven academic schools and the Conservatory of Music, many of which are in pre-professional areas, including an accelerated Bachelor of Nursing degree and cutting edge programs in software engineering, neuroscience, national security and sustainability.

In 2012, to more accurately reflect the expanded breadth of those undergraduate and graduate academic programs, Baldwin-Wallace College officially became Baldwin Wallace University.

Baldwin Wallace University Today
Today, Baldwin Wallace University has some 4,000 students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs on a 125-acre campus in Berea and online.

While BW continues to innovate on many levels, the institution’s community of learners is supported by enduring values of inclusion, support, engagement and excellence. The result is a distinctive student-centered experience that supports each individual in achieving their full potential in pursuit of big dreams, meaningful careers and an extraordinary life.

BEREA AND BEYOND

History of Berea
Adapted from www.cityofberea.org/326/history

Berea got its name by the flip of a coin back in 1836. Henry O. Sheldon, a circuit rider and later Berea's first postmaster, selected Berea and Tabor as possible names for the community. The townspeople decided to simply flip a coin, and Berea won, thus becoming the town's name.

Information obtained from the Berea Historical Society reveals that a New Englander named John Baldwin is credited with being one of Berea’s founding fathers. He is also known as the founder of the Baldwin Institute, which later became our University. John Baldwin prospered in Berea by successfully transforming the sandstone along the banks of the Rocky River into a successful industry beginning in the early 1840s and lasting nearly a century. His invention, a lathe to cut slabs of stone into grindstones, would make “Berea Stone” world famous.

Living in Berea
Adapted from www.cityofberea.org/320/livinghere

Berea is a historic community located approximately 12 miles south of Cleveland, Ohio and two miles South of Cleveland's Hopkins International Airport in Cuyahoga County. Established in 1836, the town has a rich history in sandstone quarries, education, and transportation. The vein of superior quality sandstone, which surfaces in the area, became known the world over as "Berea Stone". Today, Berea is situated within five minutes of Interstate Highways, an International Airport and other big city amenities that make living here very attractive.

Berea offers excellent medical care with numerous physicians, dentists, and other health care professionals. The Southwest General Medical Health Center is nearby as well as four other major medical facilities.

Berea has five primary shopping areas; the Berea Commons and Downtown Triangle, Parkside Shoppes, West Valley Plaza, Berea Plaza, and the North End. Berea enjoys two major supermarkets, two drug stores, and almost 500 other businesses in the city.

Churches are an integral part of the community. Most have a full range of ministries including youth, preschool, singles and seniors.

Most housing is within walking or biking distance to the Metroparks and shopping. Public transportation is also available in the form of RTA, providing easy access to places you might want to go.

The City of Berea offers its residents a variety of annual events and a quality of life found in few other places. With its year round recreation center, softball and little league teams, band concerts at the Gazebo, Grindstone Festival, Cuyahoga County Fair, Cleveland Browns Training Camp, all the way to the Light Up Berea Holiday Parade featuring Santa Claus, Berea has a warm, inviting, little university town feeling with the benefits of a major metropolitan city.
Attractions

The Cleveland Metroparks
The Metroparks which circle the Cleveland area have always been a favorite. Look for bike and hiking trails, open fields, softball diamonds, swimming at Wallace Lake, fishing and others areas of recreation.

Coe Lake
Coe Lake is one of the most scenic sights in Berea. The Coe Lake Gazebo is used for a variety of events from concerts to weddings. The additions of the Coe Lake Pavilion, Coe Lake Pergola, and walking paths have really made the area an attractive destination.

Cuyahoga County Fairgrounds
Home to the annual Cuyahoga County Fair in August, but also host to other events like Berea’s National Rib Cook-off, Irish Festival, WGAR Country Jam, Oktoberfest, and other traveling shows and events.

Berea Arts Fest
Held on the second Sunday in September, The Berea Arts Fest is a one-day, invitational, multi-arts festival held on Front Street in the heart of Berea. Approximately one hundred professional fine artists and craftspeople will display their works for sale – though admission to The Berea Arts Fest is FREE!

CAMPUS INFORMATION

You will come to find BW is a very safe campus. However, this does not mean we are not prepared for the worst. BW’s Emergency Response Plan is reviewed and updated on a regular basis and the Emergency Response Team, chaired by President Robert C. Helmer, is on call at any time if the need should arise.

A 12-member Safety and Security Department is augmented with a Student Auxiliary Staff that helps patrol the campus and provide escort to anyone twenty four hours a day, seven days a week. Their reach is extended by over 100 viewable, recording security cameras and nineteen emergency phones in high campus traffic areas. The Safety and Security Department shares radio communication with other campus departments as well as the Berea Police Department.

Solid Relationships with Local Authorities

We hire Berea police to help patrol the campus at various times of the day and they have access to many of our buildings. BW has shared a radio frequency with the local authorities for more than a decade. The result is that police know the campus very well and are able to respond almost instantly if needed.

Communicative Quickly

Being able to communicate quickly with all members of the BW community is central to the ability to respond effectively in a crisis. It is required for all new students to provide their cell phone numbers in case of an emergency. A mass text message is distributed by the University to inform the campus of what has happened and instructions for safety. Other social messaging systems may be utilized also to inform the campus community.

Faculty

Close relationships are at the heart of the BW experience. With class sizes averaging only 17 students, you can expect to get to know your professors and for them to get to know you.

Your professors will share their wisdom and experience with you on a one-on-one basis, helping you choose classes or assisting you in your search for the perfect internship. And do not think that you will only be able to contact BW faculty via voice or e-mail. Our faculty regularly gives out their home phone numbers. They really do mean it when they say, "call if you have questions."

From corporate executives and lifelong educators to environmentalists and practicing psychologists, BW's more than 300 full-time and part-time faculty hold impressive credentials in their fields. They are dedicated and talented teachers who want to provide you with an educational experience that goes well beyond your textbooks. To see what our faculty teaches and what their current interests are, check out our faculty directory.

Statistics

- Full-time faculty: 228

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Academic Advising
Are you unsure of your major? Want to talk about how your academic work, co-curricular involvement, experiential learning, and career planning can all fit together? Need help understanding the requirements for your major/minor? Want to make changes to your academic program or advisor? We can help! Stop by Bonds 102.

What is Academic Advising?
Academic Advising at Baldwin Wallace University is a developmental process of faculty members working with students to strategize, develop and implement a plan related to students’ educational, career and personal goals. Through this interactive relationship, students learn how to utilize resources and tools to make effective, self-directed decisions. While this process is a collaborative effort, the ultimate responsibility for making decisions rests with the individual student.

Academic Advising is available to all students who are admitted to Baldwin Wallace University. Advising for full-time, undergraduate day students is provided by faculty and Learning Center specialists and is coordinated by the Office of Academic Advising. Students who have declared a major will be advised by faculty in that department or school. Students whose major is undecided, are advised by a faculty member in a department of interest, a faculty member who works with undecided students or by the Coordinator of Academic Advising.

What can I expect from my academic advisor?
Your advisor can help you adjust to BW, select classes for next semester, review your plan for graduation, and release you for registration. In addition, your advisor can recommend internships, employment and graduate school opportunities. Your advisor cares about how you are doing—academically, professionally and personally.

Core Curriculum
All students must pursue a course of study sufficiently varied to acquaint you with a broad spectrum of human knowledge. In doing so, you must also utilize and develop those skills, which are essential to success in academic work as well as in your personal and professional life. Core courses provide opportunities for you to develop your knowledge and skills in writing, quantitative methods, natural sciences, social sciences, humanities, diversity studies, international studies, fine arts, cultural literacy, and wellness.

Majors
Baldwin Wallace integrates the hallmarks of a traditional liberal arts education – critical thinking, problem-solving, writing and speaking skills – with an emphasis on professional and career preparation. More than 85 academic majors are available to traditional underclassmen, including nine in the internationally respected Conservatory of Music. For a complete and current list of majors and minors, please refer to the University Catalog. The University Catalog can be referenced at http://catalog.bw.edu.

Imagine earning BW credit while discovering the sand dunes of the Moroccan desert, taking a Japanese Art course in Japan, walking past the Eiffel tower in Paris every day, or working for the White House in Washington, D.C. These are just some of the exciting learning opportunities available through the Explorations/Study Abroad Center. Each semester, Baldwin Wallace students travel to countries throughout the world and study at overseas universities. While abroad, students earn credit for courses, develop valuable professional skills, and grow into broad-minded, global citizens.

The Explorations/Study Abroad office (2nd floor student union) has reference materials and applications from recommended partners around the globe including, but not limited to:

- York St. John University (England)
- Ewha University (Korea)
- Kansai Gaidai (Japan)
- Umea University (Sweden)
- Al Akhawayn University (Morocco)
- University of Osnabrueck (Germany)
- Christ University (India)
- MICEFA (France)
- American Business School Paris (France)
- University of College Dublin (Ireland)
- Hong Kong Baptist University (China)
- University of the Sunshine Coast (Australia)
- Kingston University (England)
- University Cape Coast (Ghana)

In addition to individual study abroad programs at partner institutions, Explorations also sponsors Faculty-Led Seminars. These Seminars expose a group of BW students to specific topics in locations throughout the world and vary in length from two to three weeks. These programs allow students to travel abroad with a group of BW students and faculty members. New programs are being planned for upcoming years. So regardless of your individual needs and interests, we can help you find the right study abroad program, whether it be a full semester independent program, a faculty-led seminar, or a summer program.

There are several misconceptions about studying abroad. Here are the facts:

English is your only language. No problem! While studying abroad is indeed a great way to learn another language first-hand, neither foreign language study nor proficiency is a requirement. Many foreign universities are located in English-speaking countries or offer courses taught in English. If, however, you wish to enroll in a foreign-speaking university, in collaboration with your advisor, we can help you find the appropriate institution.

Graduate on time! Studying abroad takes research and planning. This is particularly crucial with regard to enrolling in courses that will (a) transfer back to Baldwin Wallace and (b) help fulfill your academic requirements. As long as you work with the Explorations Office Staff and your advisor, and secure the necessary pre-approval from faculty, your courses should transfer without a hitch. Over 96% of study abroad students graduate on time.

Affordable! You do not have to be independently wealthy in order to study abroad. Not even close. These opportunities are available to all students, regardless of financial background. Both federal and institutional financial aid may be applied to the cost of recommended study abroad programs. Some programs offer additional scholarships to help ease expenses.

Resume Builder. It is time to set yourself apart from others! Less than 10% of college graduates study abroad. So, there is no better way to add diversity to your resume! College is about graduating with a diverse experience. Studying abroad will help you get your first job, guaranteed! So what are you waiting for? For more information and assistance in selecting a program, stop by the Explorations/Study Abroad Center. Go ahead...explore your world!

Research
Research is an important part of the BW experience. In addition to being dedicated teachers, our professors are passionate scholars and researchers. Because our faculty cares both about their students and their work, they are more than willing to involve you in their latest project or activity. Regardless of your interest, you will have the chance to pursue research in almost every field. And you will not do it alone. You will be guided by an involved and conscientious mentor who will help you find a way to bring your passion to life. Most students find these types of research opportunities invaluable as they launch their careers or apply to graduate or professional schools.

Our Undergraduate Research and Creative Studies (URCS) Program can help provide you with these opportunities. The URCS programs include Summer Scholars, Ovation, Faculty-Student Collaborative Courses and funding opportunities to present your work off-campus.
The Center for Innovation & Growth (CIG), located on north campus, prepares tomorrow’s leaders to change their world. Students of all majors have the opportunity to learn – and practice – skills in creativity, innovation and entrepreneurship built upon a foundation of personal values and integrity. The Center’s mission is to infuse innovation and entrepreneurship campus wide and contribute to regional development.

Eligibility for Services

To be eligible for disability-related services on campus, students are responsible for disclosing information about the disability to DSS and providing documentation of their disability as defined by the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2009, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Under the ADA and Section 504, a person has a disability if he or she has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities (e.g., walking, standing, seeing, speaking, hearing, breathing, learning, working, or taking care of oneself), has a record of such an impairment, or is regarded as having such an impairment.
GETTING CONNECTED WITH DISABILITY SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

The process outlined below is for students with documented disabilities who have been offered admission and are looking to apply for reasonable accommodations and services at Baldwin Wallace University.

1. Self-disclose disability to DSS either in person or by email: disability@bw.edu.
2. Complete and submit the online Application for Accommodations.
3. Submit appropriate documentation (see below).
4. Schedule and attend the Student Welcome Meeting. Upon receipt of the application and documentation, DSS will schedule a meeting to discuss the impact, nature and functional limitations of your disability; determine reasonable accommodations (if any); discuss policies, processes and procedures.

Documentation of Disability

Current documentation of the disability and the disability-related need for any specific accommodation(s) being requested is necessary for verification purposes and to determine reasonable accommodations. The cost of the documentation is the responsibility of the student. Submission of documentation does not guarantee approval of the requested accommodation(s).

School plans such as Individualized Educational Plans (IEP) or 504 plans are not sufficient documentation to determine eligibility for academic accommodations. However, current Evaluation Team Reports (ETRs) or medical/psychological reports may serve as appropriate documentation if they meet our documentation guidelines.

General documentation guidelines and verification forms are available on our website: www.bw.edu/DisabilityServices. These documents are designed to assist students and their treating/diagnosing professional(s) in preparing the required information to evaluate the accommodation request.

Please be advised:

- Appropriate accommodations are determined on an individual, case-by-case basis.
- Academic accommodations must be requested each semester through the new online system.
- Accommodations received in high school or at another university do not automatically “transfer” to Baldwin Wallace University.
- The process to request Accommodated Housing is different from what is outlined above.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION

A reasonable accommodation is a modification or adjustment to a policy, procedure or practice or auxiliary aid or service, provided to a qualified person with a disability that enables the person to (a) participate in educational programs and activities; (b) access BW facilities and events; or (c) have equal use and enjoyment of University housing.

There are three kinds of accommodations that are not considered reasonable:

1. It is not a reasonable accommodation if making the accommodation or allowing participation poses a direct threat to the health and safety of others;
2. It is not a reasonable accommodation if making the accommodation means making a substantial change in an essential element of the curriculum or a substantial alteration in the manner in which you provide your services; and
3. It is not a reasonable accommodation if it poses an undue financial or administrative burden.
REQUESTION ACCOMMODATIONS
Baldwin Wallace University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities in compliance with applicable state and federal laws and regulations. Students requesting accommodations should complete the Getting Connected with DSS process listed above. Requests for accommodations are evaluated on a case-by-case basis. During the Student Welcome Meeting, DSS will discuss the impact, nature and functional limitations of the disability; determine what (if any) accommodations are appropriate; and discuss process, policies and procedures.

Faculty and staff are not obligated to provide accommodations unless they are in receipt of a Letter of Accommodation, LOA from DSS. Students who have completed the process are encouraged to meet with each professor early in the semester to discuss the LOA and how accommodations will be implemented for each specific course.

1. Current Students
   Unless otherwise stated below, any student with a documented disability seeking reasonable accommodation(s) is required to register with DSS. A student who approaches a professor or instructor for an accommodation will be referred to DSS. To determine if a student might be eligible for an accommodation and appropriate accommodations, students must complete the Get Connected steps outlined above. The exception is for service animals not residing in University Housing as noted below.

2. Returning Students
   Returning students are responsible for scheduling appointments with DSS and providing updated documentation when requested. Early consultation increases the likelihood that all the necessary services and accommodations can be in place by the beginning of each term. Faculty and staff who do not receive a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) from DSS will not provide accommodations to students.

3. Housing Accommodations/Request for University Housing Accommodations
   Except in the case of Service Animals not residing in University Housing, students who need Accommodated Housing need to register with DSS, complete a Request for Accommodated Housing Form and provide documentation. For more information, please visit our website.
   a. Emotional Support Animals (ESAs) - An emotional support animal (ESA) is defined as an animal that provides emotional or other support that ameliorates one or more identified symptoms or effects of a person’s disability. Unlike service animals, support animals are not required to be trained to perform work or tasks, and they include species other than dogs and miniature horses.
   b. Personal Care Attendants - Baldwin Wallace does permit students with disabilities who have a documented need for assistance with activities of daily living and/or nursing care within a residential setting, to retain the services of a Personal Care Attendant or PCA. A personal care attendant is defined as a person who provides personal care/assistance (chronic or temporary) to a student with a disability or other health care need with activities of daily living or assistance with normal life functions. BW does not provide, assume coordination or financial responsibility for personal care attendants. Students who require PCA’s must complete the Accommodated Housing Request and submit appropriate documentation to DSS that supports the medical necessity of a PCA. The student and PCA must follow the policies, procedures and guidelines as indicated on our website.
c. Service Animals - The Americans with Disabilities Act defines a service animal as a dog individually trained to do work or perform tasks for an individual with a disability. If it meets this definition, an animal is considered a service animal under the ADA regardless if it is licensed or certified by a state or local government. Species other than dogs, except for miniature horses in certain circumstances, are not considered service animals for the purpose of this definition. Service animals perform some of the functions and tasks that the individual with a disability cannot perform for him or her. Guide dogs are one type of service animal, used by some individuals who are blind. There are also service animals that assist persons with other kinds of disabilities in their day-to-day activities. A service animal is not a pet.

Responding to Accommodation Requests
DSS will respond to a student request for accommodation within 14 days of having received the request and any supporting documentation. If additional time beyond the 14 days is needed for the interactive process, DSS will contact the student to notify him/her of the status of the request. Accommodation requests will not be unreasonably delayed. DSS will make a determination regarding any such accommodation and the determination is binding on all BW faculty and staff. If DSS denies the request for accommodation, such denial will be discussed with the student, along with notice as to how a complaint may be made. DSS will keep incomplete accommodation requests (application and/or documentation) on file for approximately one academic year.

Resolving Disagreements or Filing a Complaint
Baldwin Wallace University is committed to ensuring that no otherwise-qualified individual with a disability is excluded from participation in, denied the benefits of, or subjected to discrimination in University programs or activities due to his/her disability. The University is fully committed to complying with all requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act as amended, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and to providing equal educational opportunities to otherwise-qualified students with disabilities.

To that end, the University has established a four-step internal grievance procedure that is designed to achieve an equitable resolution within a reasonable amount of time. A University student who believes that he/she has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of disability, or has been denied access or accommodations required by law, shall have the right to invoke the Grievance Procedure. The Grievance Procedure is intended to address disputes regarding requested services or accommodations, or modifications to University practices or requirements.

The Grievance Procedure shall not supersede or replace any existing University dispute resolution policies and procedures. Students are encouraged to consult with the Director of Disability Services or respective designees regarding the most appropriate University policy or procedure to address a particular concern.

Step One: A student may bring a discrimination concern or appeal a denial of an accommodation request by submitting the Step One Grievance Form to the Disability Specialist for his/her consideration.

Step Two: If the matter remains unresolved after Step One, the student may submit the matter to the Director of Disability Services within fourteen (14) days of the Step One decision for a prompt and informal resolution. If the informal resolution arrived at by the Director is unsatisfactory to the student, the student may file a formal Step Three Grievance Form.
Step Three: This request for a Step Three formal review must be filed within fourteen (14) days of the Step Two denial or lack of resolution. The Director of Disability Services will then investigate the matter and issue a written decision within fourteen (14) days after receiving the grievance. The Director and the student may mutually agree on an extension of time if additional information gathering is necessary or some other unforeseen delay arises.

Step Four: If the student wishes to challenge the Step Three written decision of the Director of Disability Services, he/she has a right to file a Step Four Grievance with the Provost. In order to begin this process, the student must complete the Step Four Grievance Form.

A Step Four Grievance Form must be filed no later than thirty (30) days after the date of the Step Three written decision of the Director of Disability Services. The Provost reserves the right to refuse to investigate a Step Four Grievance that is filed more than thirty (30) days after the date of the written decision of the Director of Disability Services.

Upon receipt of a timely Step Four Grievance, the Provost or his designee shall investigate the matter. Investigation will ordinarily involve interviewing relevant individuals and reviewing reasonably available documents, including the Step One through Step Three Grievance Forms.

Upon completion of the investigation, the Provost or designee will issue a written determination to the student and the Director of Disability Services, which will specify findings, and, if appropriate, set forth the resolution of the matter. Such written determination shall ordinarily be issued within thirty (30) days of the date of the Step Four Grievance. Circumstances which may prolong the response of the Provost or designee include the intervention of a semester break and such other circumstances which may render unavailable persons necessary to an appropriate resolution of the complaint.

The Provost or designee shall maintain files and records relating to all Step Four Grievances. The right of the student to an equitable and timely resolution of a filed grievance shall not be impaired by his/her pursuit of other remedies such as the filing of a complaint with the responsible federal or state agency.

Office for Civil Rights (OCR) Complaint: Although students are encouraged to attempt to resolve complaints pertaining to disabilities by using this Grievance Procedure, they have the right to file a complaint directly with the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights (OCR):

United States Department of Education
Office for Civil Rights, Cleveland Office
600 Superior Avenue East, Suite 750
Cleveland, Ohio 44114-2611
Phone: 216.522.4970      Fax: 216.522.2573      Email: OCR.Cleveland@ed.gov.
Responsibilities of Students
Students with documented disabilities have the right to an equal opportunity to participate in programs offered through Baldwin Wallace University. Students who choose to exercise these rights have the responsibility to initiate and participate in the accommodation process. Recognizing this, students:

1. Have a responsibility to self-disclose their disability and need for accommodation to Disability Services for Students in a timely manner.
2. Have a responsibility to document how their disability affects a particular delivery system, instructional method, or evaluation criteria when requesting accommodation.
3. Have a responsibility to actively participate in the search for accommodations and auxiliary aids.
4. Have the responsibility of submitting a Letter of Accommodation (LOA) request each semester.
5. Have the responsibility to communicate to their professors their individual needs and work with the professor on methods of accommodation.
6. Have the responsibility to schedule accommodated test requests in a timely manner.
7. Have the same obligation as any student to meet and maintain the institution’s academic and technical standards.
8. Have a right to be evaluated based on their ability, not their disability. If their disability affects the outcome of an evaluation method they are entitled to an evaluation by alternate means.
9. Have a right to an equal opportunity to participate in all aspects of the academic community at a comparable level that is provided to any student. If the location, delivery system or instructional methodology limits their access, participation, or ability to benefit, they have a right to reasonable adjustments (to be determined by University officials) in those aspects of the course (or program) to accommodate their disability.
10. Have a right to appeal decisions concerning accommodations (Please see Grievance Procedure).

Responsibilities of Faculty
Faculty are integral in providing academic accommodations to students with documented disabilities. As such, they have a responsibility in support of students with diagnosed disabilities that are connected (registered) with DSS. Faculty responsibilities include:

1. DSS Syllabus Statement. Include the DSS statement in their course syllabi: https://my.bw.edu/Campus-Life/Services/Disability/Pages/Syllabus-Statement-.aspx.
2. Review notification email. Faculty will receive an email from DSS with the student’s name, ID and appropriate accommodations. Please review the email, submit any requested information and consider the impact of the accommodations in the context of your course. If you have questions or concerns, please contact disability@bw.edu. Support DSS in providing appropriate academic accommodations as outlined in the Letter of Accommodation (LOA).
3. Maintain Confidentiality. Information concerning a student’s disability should remain private and disclosed only to those who have a legitimate “need to know.”
4. Web Access. All courses web pages, Blackboard sites and course documents must be constructed in an accessible format. Web pages need to be accessible across multiple platforms. If media is embedded into pages, descriptive text or captioning must also be provided. Please visit: http://www.washington.edu/doit/web-pages for more information.
Responsibilities of Baldwin Wallace University

Baldwin Wallace has a responsibility to identify and maintain the academic and technical standards that are fundamental in providing quality academic programs while ensuring access to students with disabilities. In meeting these obligations the University:

1. Has the responsibility to inform its applicants and students about the availability and the range of accommodations.
2. Has the responsibility to ensure that all of its programs are accessible.
3. Has the responsibility to make reasonable adjustments in the delivery, instructional method and evaluation system for a course to accommodate the specific manifestation of the disability.
4. Has the responsibility to consider academic adjustments/substitutions to requirements/courses that may be problematic because of the functional limitations imposed by the student’s disability. Reasonable accommodations shall be made to assure that assessment of the student’s achievement is not masked by disability related concerns.
5. Has the right to identify and establish the abilities, skills, and knowledge necessary for successful entrance into its programs and to evaluate applicants on that basis.
6. Has the right to identify and establish the abilities, skills, and knowledge that are fundamental to academic programs/courses and to evaluate each student's performance on that basis.
7. Has the right to request and review documentation in support of accommodation requests. Upon review by appropriately designated individuals, the University has the right to refuse an unsupported or unreasonable request.
8. Has the right to select between equally effective methods of accommodating a student with a disability.
9. Has the right to refuse an accommodation based on undue hardship as determined by designated University Officials.

APPENDIX A

DISABILITY CONDITIONS

Learning Disabilities
Learning disabilities are lifelong conditions, which affect learning in individuals with normal or above normal intelligence. These disorders affect learning processes, but not necessarily the capacity to learn. Students with learning disabilities may experience difficulties in one or more of the following ways: listening, speaking, reading, writing, mathematical reasoning, organizational skills, time management, and social skills. Students with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), which is not classified as a learning disability, often have coexisting learning disabilities, and/or their symptoms interfere with their acquisition and demonstration of knowledge in the classroom.

Physical Disabilities
Physical disabilities include deafness or being hard of hearing, loss of or limitations to vision, and/or loss of or impairment to limbs. Students with these conditions may use such aids as wheelchairs, canes, American Sign Language interpreters, part or full time care providers, service animals, or a wide variety of assistive technology including screen readers, visible alarms, and voice-to-text software. Personal care assistance must be arranged and paid for by the student, while most access-related building modifications and many types of assistive technology are arranged and paid for by the University.
Medical Disabilities
The types of disabilities covered in this category are generally chronic health impairments, such as cystic fibrosis, diabetes, sickle cell anemia, cancers, AIDS, hemophilia, epilepsy, muscular dystrophy, hepatitis, and many others. At times, these diseases can have acute phases requiring bed rest or hospitalization. These conditions may limit both cognitive and motor function and are often associated with fatigue. Accommodations for medical conditions can vary greatly depending on need.

Psychiatric Disabilities
Psychiatric disabilities can cause difficulties with attention, concentration, fatigue, thought processes, organization, motivation, and establishing and maintaining social relationships. Some examples of psychiatric illnesses include clinical depression, anxiety disorders, bipolar illness, schizophrenia, and eating disorders. Physical and emotional symptoms related to past history of substance abuse and discrimination related to past history of substance abuse is also covered by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). It should be noted, however, that the ADA does not cover problems related to functional impairments based on a current and ongoing pattern of alcohol or illegal substance use.

APPENDIX B
SAMPLE SYLLABUS STATEMENT FOR DISABILITY SERVICES
To encourage disclosure of a disability, we ask that faculty members include the following statement in their syllabi:

Baldwin Wallace University is committed to providing all students equal access to learning opportunities. Students who have, or think they may have a disability (e.g. mental health, attentional, learning, vision, hearing, physical or systemic) and would like to arrange reasonable accommodations should contact Disability Services for Students (DSS) at (440) 826-2147 or disability@bw.edu. Students interested in determining their eligibility for services should visit the DSS Portal page, Get Connected.

APPENDIX C
ACCESSIBILITY/SNOW REMOVAL ROUTE
Baldwin Wallace University is committed to providing access for individuals with disabilities to the academic, social, cultural, and recreational programs we offer. In keeping with our commitment, BW has created an Accessibility Map of the BW Campus that outlines various routes that individuals with disabilities can use to travel from one campus location to another.

During snow and ice events, Buildings & Grounds will attempt to keep clear the priority snow routes shown in RED on the map. The priority snow route was designed to cover one entrance to every building, which will be the accessible entrance. Other helpful features on the Accessibility Map include the location of:
- Accessible entrances to campus buildings
- Names of campus buildings
- Accessible parking spaces
- Campus parking lots
- Blue emergency security telephones

JACKET ACCESS VAN
Disability Services for Students in conjunction with the Purchasing/Motor Pool Department provides limited transportation support services for students with permanent disabilities that would significantly affect their ability to travel around campus. Eligibility for transportation support services is determined by an assessment of a student's individual need by an appropriate staff member from Disability Services for Students.
Financial Aid

Information on the different types of financial assistance, including gift assistance (scholarships and grants), student loans, and Federal Work-Study eligibility are available online at http://www.bw.edu/finaid/.

We also encourage students to contact the Financial Aid Office by email finaid@bw.edu, by fax 440-826-8048, or by phone, 440-826-2108. Students with questions about their financial aid eligibility may also make an appointment with an aid counselor or can simply drop by the office. We are here to help.

Student Employment Center (SEC)

Room 211, Bonds Administration Building 440-826-3177

Students seeking on campus employment, Federal Work Study or Non-Federal Work Study, are required to complete New Hire Payroll paperwork before they can begin to work on campus. The required forms can be found online on the MyBW Portal, Student Employment; https://my.bw.edu/Campus-Life/Your-Campus/Student-Employment/Pages/default.aspx or come to the SEC office to complete the forms. All forms must be on file in the SEC to be eligible to begin work.

Student Employment (work study) postings are listed through the BW Career Network powered by Handshake, which is hosted by the Office of Career Services. Students will receive an email from Career Services the first week of August with their login credentials for the BW Career Network site.

Bursar & Cashier’s Office

Any invoice or billing statement from the University is payable on or before the payment due date shown on the bill unless the student is participating in the University’s formal payment plan. See payment plan details below. Fees not paid by the due date will be assessed a monthly finance charge, on any unpaid account balance, until paid in full. The monthly finance charge rate is .417%. Online payments are accepted through the Payment Portal accessible from the link under “Make Your Tuition Payment” found at https://www.bw.edu/tuition/payments/. A 2.85% convenience fee will be charged on credit card payments (VISA, MasterCard and Discover only). Use a check online to avoid the convenience fee. Visit the cashier’s office located on the main floor of the Bonds Administration Building if paying an invoice in person. Please direct questions to the cashiers who may be contacted at 440-826-2217.

BW has an interest free monthly payment plan. Enroll online through the Payment Portal accessible from the link found under the “Monthly Payment Plans” at https://www.bw.edu/tuition/payments/.

Tuition charges: All students taking 12 credit hours or more will be charged the full-time rate. Students taking more than 18 credit hours, for any type of class, will be charged at the full-time rate plus the daytime student hourly rate for each credit hour over 18. Those registered for fewer than 12 credit hours will be considered part-time and will be charged on a per credit hour basis. See the catalog for the listing of fees and information about refunds. All tuition and related academic fees are due by the first day of class. Subsequent term registration will be permitted only when accounts are paid in full. Students who have not fully met their financial obligations to the University are subject to sanctions including holding back on degree conference or confirmation as well as the release of academic transcripts. Payment plans are permitted however and sanctions will not be lifted until accounts are paid in full.

The Office of Commuter Services (OCS)
As part of the Office of Residence Life the mission of the Office of Commuter Services (OCS) is to provide direct support to traditional and non-traditional undergraduate and graduate students who commute to the Baldwin Wallace University campus. Our mission is achieved through programs and services that assist students in making connections to campus life and involvement opportunities.

Along with serving as a resource to students, The Office of Commuter Services (OCS) is responsible for advising the Commuter Activity Board (CAB) and the upkeep of the Commuter Lounge in Heritage Hall, 114 Tressel Street, Berea, Ohio, right across from the Durst Welcome Center. The Commuter Lounge is available to all commuting students and can be accessed with your Jacket Express card. The lounge is open every day from 6:00 AM to Midnight when classes are in session. Lounge amenities include lockers, a refrigerator, microwave, computers, and a Keurig machine (bring your own K-cups).

Additional services provided by our office include special events such as Commuter Appreciation Week, Commuter Coffee Hour, Dine and Dash, April Reign activities and Rally Before the Reign.
Department of Safety & Security

Recognizing the need to insure a safe environment for the entire BW Community, the Department of Safety and Security Services works closely with the Berea Police Department in patrolling our campus. Other functions include student escort services, vehicle lockout assists, and crime prevention programs.

Anyone needing assistance or wishing to report a possible crime should contact the Department of Safety and Security Services at 440-826-2000. Those not having an emergency can contact the department at 440-826-2336. If you are missing something and suspect that it has been stolen, report the item to the Department of Safety and Security Services and to your hall director if you are a residential student. Insurance companies require that a theft report also be filed promptly with the local police department.

CRIME REPORTING

During the academic year, the Department of Safety and Security produces a weekly media report summarizing criminal incidents that are reported to Safety and Security by a victim or by other involved parties. This report is submitted to The Exponent, BW’s student newspaper, and is published at the discretion of the editors. There is a log of these summarized incidents available for public review, located at Safety and Security.

The Division of Student Affairs, in conjunction with the Department of Safety and Security, will make timely warning reports to the campus community regarding certain crimes that represent a continuing threat to the campus community. In addition to being posted in public areas, this information may be distributed by campus mail and/or electronic mail as well as text messaging and other social messaging.

In accordance with the Campus Security Act, Baldwin Wallace University provides crime statistics, fire statistics and security information to current and prospective students and current and prospective employees. The Safety and Security Department serves as the “clearing house” in the gathering of crime data and judicial referrals from those with “significant responsibilities for students and campus activities.” Upon request, the Berea Police Department, the Berea Fire Department, the Cleveland Police Department, the Beachwood Police Department, the Cleveland Metroparks Ranger Department, and the “non-campus” facility administrators report pertinent criminal incident information, from the required geographical areas, to Baldwin Wallace University Safety and Security. All gathered criminal and referral information is then compared to minimize multiple postings for the same reported criminal incidents or arrests, and then incorporated in the annual Safety and Security brochure. This complete pamphlet can be viewed on the BW Web site by selecting Safety and Security under the offices tab. The complete address is: www.bw.edu/about/offices/safety-security/index. A printed copy of this brochure will be provided, upon request, by contacting Safety and Security at 440-826-2336. Printed copies are also available for pick-up at the offices of Safety and Security, Admission and Human Resources.

University Vans & Transportation

Eight, seven-passenger mini-vans are available to transport members of the BW community to and from various academic, cultural, social, and extracurricular events. Advance reservations are required. For reservations call the Purchasing Department at 440-826-2444. Priority is on a first come, first serve basis. You must be or have a driver who has been authorized and certified to drive a University vehicle. Certification is obtained by taking a van skills class that is offered through the University. For more information about this class, call the Purchasing Department.
Student Activities Center (SAC)

This facility west of the Union provides a club-like atmosphere for entertainment programming on campus. It features a pulsating sound and dance light system, a large video projection screen and projector, and a 20’ X 30’ stage. Comedians, live bands, receptions, formal dances, and everything in between attract students to many all-campus events held at this facility. The SAC holds up to 200 people on the main floor and 100 on the upper level.

The SAC is available for recognized BW organization events seven days a week by reservation only. The SAC is managed and staffed by a BW student staff, so all reservations must be made at least two weeks prior to the event to allow for proper scheduling. You can schedule the SAC through Union Scheduling & Administration at 440-826-2351 or emailing union@bw.edu. Food arrangements are made through Dining Services 440-826-2412.
CULTURAL & DIVERSITY

Academic & Cultural Events Series (ACES)

ACES provides an opportunity for an enriched learning environment by co-sponsoring many programs of intellectual and cultural interest with academic departments and student organizations throughout the year. ACES also assists with the coordination of special interest programs (i.e. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration Week, Enduring Questions Lecture Series, Hispanic Heritage Month, Black History Month), as well as presentations in the performing arts (music, dance, drama).

Furthermore, ACES collaborates with other offices, student organizations, and community area representatives in providing exciting, educational, and enriching events. Of particular note is our World Music Series, which focuses on globally diverse music and artists from literally around the world. The various art forms we present encompass unique instrumentation, vibrant cultural practices and traditions, and the highest in artistic quality.

All ACES events are open to the entire BW community and usually to the general public. Additionally, ACES is always looking for volunteers to help with ushering at events, hosting guests and speakers, and promoting our events on campus and in the community. With ACES, you always have a winning hand!

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

Student Senate is the official representative body of the students of Baldwin Wallace University. The Senate meets every Tuesday, at 6:30 PM, in chambers located on the lower level of the Union. All Senate meetings are open, and all students are welcome to attend. Senators meet regularly with University administrators and faculty to represent and express the opinions of the student body in matters affecting student life and to establish and fund official student organizations. Senate elections take place once per semester, while appointments can take place during the academic year when there is a vacancy. Any full-time BW undergraduate student in good standing, with a cumulative GPA of 2.7 or higher, is eligible to run for a Senate seat.

EXECUTIVE BRANCH

The President and Vice President of the student body head the Executive Branch of Student Government. Both the President and Vice President work closely with the Senate to express the student body’s views to University faculty and administration. Elections for student body officers occur once a year in February. Candidates for both offices run together. Full-time undergraduate students in good standing with junior status and a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.8 are eligible to be President; those in good standing with sophomore status and a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.8 are eligible to run for Vice President. The Student Government Executive Branch acts as a liaison between students and administrators of the University. Students are encouraged to stop by the Executive offices located in the lower level of the Union.

JUDICIAL BRANCH

The Supreme Court of Students (aka Supreme Court) of the student body makes up the Judicial Branch of Student Government. It hears cases pertaining to Student Government and the clubs it funds. They also advocate for students’ rights on campus. Occasionally seats on the court are open for joint appointment by the Student Body President and Student Senate President. For more information, contact the court at sgcourt@bw.edu.

Students interested in learning more about Student Government can visit the governing body’s myBW site or contact the Student Senate President (senpres@mail.bw.edu).

Statement of Student Responsibility

Baldwin Wallace University based in the traditions of the United Methodist Church, “is a community committed to the learning and growth of students” (Baldwin-Wallace College, 1996-98 Catalog, p. 1). As a church-related university, Baldwin Wallace strives to maintain the highest standards of study and conduct and anticipates that each student will assist in this endeavor.

The University expects high moral and ethical conduct of its students. All students, faculty and staff members share the responsibility of maintaining this high level of behavior. When students are admitted to Baldwin Wallace University, it is assumed that they are aware of the established University policies and are endowed with a high level of responsibility for their personal behavior, as well as for the University.

The Baldwin Wallace University Community is committed to fostering a campus environment that is conducive to academic inquiry, productive campus life, and thoughtful study and discourse. A community exists on the basis of shared values and principles. At Baldwin Wallace University, student members of the community are expected to uphold and abide by certain standards of conduct that form the basis of the Student Code of Conduct. These standards are embodied within a set of core values that include integrity, fairness, respect, community and responsibility. When members of the community fail to exemplify these values, campus conduct proceedings are used to assert and uphold the Student Code of Conduct.

Philosophy

The student conduct process at Baldwin Wallace University is not intended to only punish or discipline students. Rather, it exists to protect the interests of the community, and to challenge those whose behavior is not in accordance with our core values. Sanctions are intended to challenge students’ moral and ethical decision-making and to help them bring their behavior into accord with our community values. When a student is unable to conform his/her behavior to community expectations, the student conduct process may determine that he/she should no longer share in the privilege of participating in this community. Students should be aware that the student conduct process is quite different from criminal and civil court proceedings. Procedures and rights in student conduct proceedings are conducted with fairness to all, but do not include the same protections of due process afforded by the courts.

Thereafter, the Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students appoints the Director of Student Conduct as the day-to-day manager of the Code.

8. The Director of Student Conduct will report to the Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students on a regular basis regarding the administration of the Student Code of Conduct.

9. Should a situation arise whereby the Director of Student Conduct is unable to perform his/her duties, the Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students will select and appoint a person to serve with or in the place of the Director of Student Conduct.

Expectations for Student Conduct

A. Jurisdiction Over Student Conduct

The Student Code of Conduct is maintained online for all students. Students are charged with the responsibility of having read, and agreeing to abide by, the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct and the authority of the student conduct process. The Student Code of Conduct and the student conduct process apply to the conduct of individual students and University-affiliated student organizations. Because the Student Code of Conduct is based on shared values, it sets a range of expectations for the Baldwin Wallace University student no matter where or when their conduct may take place. Therefore, the Student Code of Conduct will apply to behaviors that take place on the campus, at University-sponsored events, and may also apply off-campus, when the administration determines that the off-campus conduct affects a substantial University interest. A substantial University interest is defined to include:

- Any action that constitutes a criminal offense as defined by Ohio law. This includes repeat violations of any local, state or federal law committed in the municipality where the University is located.
- Any situation where it appears that the student may present a danger or threat to the health or safety of him/herself or others.
- Any situation that significantly impinges upon the rights, property or achievements of self or others or significantly breaches the peace and/or causes social disorder.
- Any situation that is detrimental to the educational interests of the University.

The Student Code of Conduct may be applied to conduct that takes place during the time a person is enrolled as a student, including during intra-semester breaks and between semesters. Further, the Student Code of Conduct applies to guests of community members, whose host(s) may be held accountable for the misconduct of their guests. Visitors to and guests of Baldwin Wallace University are also protected by the Student Code of Conduct, and may initiate grievances for violations of the Student Code of Conduct committed by members of the Baldwin Wallace University community against them. Baldwin Wallace University may also extend its jurisdiction to misconduct that occurs prior to, but is not reported until after the graduation of the offending student, as long as the misconduct is reported within six months of its occurrence. Otherwise, there is no time limit on reporting of violations of the Student Code of Conduct, as long as the offending student is still enrolled at Baldwin Wallace University. However, the longer someone waits to report an offense, the harder it becomes for Baldwin Wallace University to obtain evidence and witness statements, and to make a determination regarding alleged violations. Those who are aware of misconduct are encouraged to report it as quickly as possible to the Office of Student Conduct and/or Safety and Security.
Violations of Law
Violations of federal, state and local laws are incorporated as offenses under the Student Code of Conduct. When an offense occurs over which the University has jurisdiction, the University conduct process will usually go forward notwithstanding any criminal complaint that may arise from the same incident. Should a student withdraw from the University when a criminal complaint is made, it is the typical practice of the University to pursue investigation and resolution of campus conduct matters, regardless of the fact that the student has withdrawn.

When a student is accused, arrested, charged or indicted for a violent or drug-related off-campus crime or another offense of concern, the University may elect to take action against that student for violation of the Student Code of Conduct, which incorporates violation of local, state and federal laws as code infractions.

When it has reasonable cause to separate a student from the community, the University may suspend a student for a reasonable time pending the scheduling of a campus hearing for violation of the Student Code of Conduct. The University reserves the right to exercise its authority of interim suspension upon notification that a student is facing criminal investigation and/or complaint. The University will permit a student who receives an interim suspension to request a meeting with the Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students to show cause why an interim suspension is not merited. Regardless of the outcome of this meeting, the University may still proceed with the scheduling of a campus hearing.

When criminal charges are pending, the University may be delayed or prevented from conducting its own investigation, and moving forward with a campus hearing. In such an instance, the University will delay its hearing until it can complete an internal investigation, or obtain from law enforcement sufficient information upon which to proceed.

It may be in the best interests of students accused of crimes to withdraw from the University until the criminal charges are resolved. The University has a procedure for voluntary withdrawals under the following conditions. If the alleged victim of the crime is a student, the alleged victim must approve of the withdrawal and delay of the hearing. The accused student must comply with any and all campus efforts at investigation that will not prejudice their defense in the criminal trial, and the accused student must agree that in order to be re-instated to active student status, they must first be subject to and fully cooperative with a campus hearing, and must comply with any sanctions that are administered.

Special Provisions

1. In most circumstances, Baldwin Wallace University will treat attempts to commit any of the violations listed in the Student Code of Conduct as if those attempts had been completed.

2. As necessary, Baldwin Wallace University reserves the right to initiate a complaint, to serve as complainant, and to initiate conduct proceedings without a formal complaint by the victim of misconduct.

3. Baldwin Wallace University will not tolerate intentional false reporting of incidents. It is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct to make an intentionally false report of any policy violation, and it may also violate state criminal statutes and civil defamation laws.

4. When members of groups, individuals acting collusively, or members of an organization act in concert in violation of any policy, they may be held accountable as a group, and a hearing may proceed against the group as joint accused students.
5. Good Samaritan Policy: The Baldwin Wallace University Community encourages the reporting of crimes by victims to University officials and, if appropriate, law enforcement authorities. Sometimes, victims are hesitant to report to University officials because they fear that they themselves may be accused of policy violations, such as underage drinking at the time of the incident. It is in the best interests of this community that as many victims as possible choose to report to University officials. To encourage reporting, Baldwin Wallace University pursues a policy of offering victims of crimes immunity from policy violations related to the incident.

6. The welfare of members of our community is of paramount importance. At times, community members on and off-campus may need assistance. Baldwin Wallace University encourages you to offer help and assistance to others in need. Sometimes, you may be hesitant to offer assistance to others, for fear that you may get into trouble (for example, a student who has been drinking underage might hesitate to help take a sexual misconduct victim to the Residence Life staff or Safety and Security). Baldwin Wallace University pursues a policy of limited immunity for those who offer help to others in need. While policy violations cannot be overlooked, the University will provide educational options, rather than sanctions, to those who offer their assistance to others in need.

4. Notice of conduct proceedings and related materials will be expediently sent to the student’s BW e-mail address.

5. A time will be set for a hearing, not less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15) University business days after the student has been notified of the complaint. Time limits for scheduling of hearings may be changed for reasonable cause at the discretion of the Director of Student Conduct.
6. On occasion, as a result of the timing of a report or the University calendar, it will not be possible for the Director of Student Conduct to convene the appropriate board for a hearing. On such occasions, the Director of Student Conduct will determine the appropriate alternative hearing format to be used. The Director of Student Conduct will also take action if the appropriate board is unable to reach a decision within two class days after the conclusion of a hearing.

B. STUDENT RIGHTS IN THE CONDUCT PROCESS

 Applies to both complainant and the accused student, except where noted

1. To view a copy of the written complaint and have the complaint explained clearly and fully at every level of the conduct process.

2. To request in writing to the Director of Student Conduct that separate hearings are conducted, if more than one student has been accused of a Code violation arising out of a common incident.

3. To hear testimony and/or see all written statements concerning the complaint.

4. To be informed of the names of all witnesses who will provide oral and/or written statements, unless the Director of Student Conduct makes special provision for a witness to remain anonymous, in the event that it is determined that the identity of the witness is not critical information necessary for a party to fully respond to the testimony/written statement.

5. To refute oral and/or written statements made by witnesses and other parties.

6. To have a fair and prompt hearing, and to have any delays in scheduling explained.

7. To be notified promptly of the resolution of the complaint.

8. To be advised of the appropriate appeal process (complainants do not have the right to appeal all types of violations).

C. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE CONDUCT PROCESS

1. The University expects students to assume responsibility for their own actions during the conduct process.

2. Students are expected to appear when requested to do so throughout the entire process, and failure to do so may result in a complaint for failure to comply with the directives of a University official.

3. If the student fails to appear and proper notification has been verified, the hearing will proceed.

4. Sanctions may be imposed upon a student refusing to appear or cooperate.

5. Throughout the conduct process, students have the responsibility to present truthful information.

6. Any student found to have willfully presented false or misleading information will be subject to notice and a hearing on a complaint of abuse of the campus conduct system.

7. Students are expected to complete the sanctions issued at any level in the conduct process. Failure to do so may result in further conduct action.
D. STUDENT ORGANIZATION RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE CONDUCT PROCESS

1. Student organizations are expected to adhere to all applicable University rules.

2. The University reserves the right to determine the appropriate time, place, content, and manner for conducting organizational activities, as well as the posting and distribution of materials on campus. Consequently, the University may deny or restrict the activities of student organizations.

3. Student organizations are expected to exercise good judgment in planning and promoting their activities.

4. Failure to exercise good judgment may result in conduct action being initiated against the organization. Thus, policies, procedures and sanctions set forth within the Student Handbook apply to student organizations collectively as well as to individual students.

5. Officers of student organizations are responsible for assuring compliance with policies and for representation when conduct proceedings are initiated.

6. Whenever a student organization is involved in any proceeding under this Code, its president (or other officer if authorized by such organization) will represent such organization in all conferences and hearings under this Code.

E. DIRECTOR OF STUDENT CONDUCT

1. The Director of Student Conduct may conduct an investigation to determine if a complaint has merit and/or if a complaint can be resolved by mutual consent of both parties involved. Such resolution will be final and there will be no subsequent proceedings.

2. If in the course of an investigation, a student accepts responsibility for the allegations of the complaint, the Director of Student Conduct will conduct an informal hearing. This hearing will be used to determine the sanctions, only after the accused student has accepted responsibility for a violation(s).

3. After reviewing the incident report, the Director of Student Conduct will determine how the complaint will proceed. A complaint can be dismissed (either because it does not constitute a violation or because there is insufficient evidence to establish reasonable cause) or a complaint can be assigned for a formal hearing to an administrative council.

4. Once the complaint is assigned to an Administrative Council, the Director of Student Conduct monitors the progress of the complaint through the system, ensures correct procedures are followed, observes deliberation and advises when needed, and maintains a final record of the complaint.

5. If an appeal is requested, the Director of Student Conduct determines if grounds for an appeal exist, and if so assigns the appeal to the appropriate conduct body and maintains a record of the resolution.
F. COMPLAINT ASSIGNMENT BY THE DIRECTOR OF STUDENT CONDUCT

1. Informal Hearing (see E.2. above)

2. Administrative Council

   d. Records of hearing: Maintained by Director of Student Conduct

G. PROCEEDINGS THAT GOVERN ALL HEARINGS BY ANY CONDUCT BODY

Students have the right to fundamental procedural fairness within an impartial conduct system. A conduct body member who cannot hear the complaint in an unbiased manner must excuse herself/himself from the complaint. Students may only be found in violation of policy if evidence brought forward during the investigation and/or hearing persuades a majority of the conduct body members that it is more likely than not that the accused student’s actions violated the Student Code of Conduct. The conduct body may have access to records of previous hearings to aid in its sanction decisions, and in rare circumstances (such as sexual misconduct complaints where a pattern or series of offenses is suspected), records of previous similar violations of the Student Code of Conduct may be considered during the hearing itself. It is the responsibility of the Director of Student Conduct to bring this information to the attention of the conduct body. Conduct body members may not reveal the details of the proceedings, including deliberations, unless prescribed by the Director of Student Conduct, upon advice of legal counsel. Hearings will be conducted by a conduct body according to the following guidelines:

1. Hearings will be conducted in private. All student members of the conduct body must be in good standing with the University and have earned a cumulative GPA of at least 2.0. All faculty members must be full-time members of the University faculty.

2. Admission of any person to a hearing will be at the discretion of the conduct body. Likewise, witnesses and exhibits that are not disclosed in advance of the hearing may be excluded at the discretion of the conduct body.

3. In hearings involving more than one accused student, if one or both of the accused students has not already requested separation then the chairperson of the conduct body, in his or her discretion, may permit the hearings concerning each student to be conducted separately.

4. Proceedings may be taped using a recording device, at the discretion of the Director of Student Conduct.

5. At each hearing, the council of peers will select a chairperson to preside over the proceeding and a recorder to keep a summary of the hearing. If the conduct body consists of only one hearing officer then that individual will serve as recorder and chairperson.
6. The complainant and the accused student each have the right to have one advisor present at the hearing. They must inform the Director of Student Conduct of the name of the advisor at least one University business day prior to the hearing date. The advisor must be a person employed by or enrolled at Baldwin Wallace University, unless the Director of Student Conduct grants special permission. The advisor cannot be an attorney. (Provisions pertaining to the Sexual Misconduct Policy may apply). The complainant and the accused are responsible for presenting their own arguments and, therefore, the advisor is not permitted to speak or to participate directly in any hearing before a conduct body. Advisor and advisee may exchange notes in the hearing, or talk outside during a break, but students must speak on their own behalf during the hearing. At any time, should the advisor step outside of their permitted role, he or she may be ejected from the hearing at the discretion of the Chairperson or Director of Student Conduct. The hearing will then proceed without an advisor for that party.

7. The complainant, the accused student, and the hearing chairperson will have the privilege of presenting witnesses, all of whom may be questioned by the conduct body and the parties. It is the responsibility of the complainant and the accused to contact their own witnesses, request their attendance at the hearing, and notify the Director of Student Conduct of the witnesses’ names at least one University business day prior to the hearing date. The Director of Student Conduct may also contact witnesses to appear at the hearing. The hearing may proceed even if all witnesses are not present. The Director of Student Conduct or the hearing chairperson may limit the number of witnesses permitted to attend the hearing, if it is clear they will only offer redundant, repetitive or otherwise unessential testimony or information.

8. Complaint: The chairperson of the conduct body will read the complaint(s) to the accused student(s).

9. Response: The accused student(s) will accept or reject each accusation of the complaint.

10. Presentation by the Complainant: The complainant may present evidence, including witnesses, related to the offense.

11. Presentation by the Accused: The accused may comment upon the evidence and may present additional evidence, including witnesses.

12. Questioning: Each party may question the witnesses of the other, and the conduct body may also question witnesses and parties.

13. Clarification of the Evidence: The complainant and/or members of the conduct body may re-examine evidence against the accused student in view of the evidence presented during the hearing.

14. Summary Statement: At the conclusion of the hearing the complainant and the accused may each make a brief summary statement.

15. Pertinent records, exhibits and written statements may be accepted as evidence for consideration by a conduct body at the discretion of the Chairperson. All evidence considered by the body must be relevant and credible. The Chairperson has the responsibility to control all evidence that is inadmissible.

16. All procedural questions are subject to the final decision of the Chairperson of the conduct body, who may consult with the Director of Student Conduct where necessary.
17. The conduct body’s determination will be made on the basis of whether it is “more likely than not” that the accused student(s) is/are responsible for violating the Student Code of Conduct as alleged.

18. The conduct body will promptly determine (by majority vote if the conduct body consists of more than one person) whether or not the student is found responsible for each allegation and may orally communicate the resolution to the parties. The Chairperson will prepare a written deliberation report to be included in the student’s conduct file detailing the finding and how the conclusion was reached, the evidence cited by the body in support of its finding, and any evidence that the body excluded from its consideration, and why. This report should conclude with the recommended sanctions and must be submitted to the Director of Student Conduct within 48 hours after the end of deliberations. Within five (5) University business days of receiving the report the Director of Student Conduct will e-mail the results to the accused student, and implement any sanctions. Where the complaint involves sexual misconduct, the alleged victim is also entitled, without any qualification or condition, to know the outcome and sanction and to have such in writing. Where the complaint involves stalking, arson, assault, burglary, vandalism, kidnapping, or robbery, the victim may be informed of the outcome and sanction only if the accused is found to be in violation. Generally, sanctions will remain in place despite any appeals that are requested, unless the Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students decides upon application to stay the implementation of sanctions.

19. A record, including incident report, resolution (and recording, if applicable), will be kept for all hearings before a conduct body. The record is the property of Baldwin Wallace University. The Director of Student Conduct will retain all written records for safekeeping for the standard maintenance period of the University. All recordings will be retained by the Director of Student Conduct until the student(s) has(ve) exhausted their right of appeal. For complaints that result in suspension or expulsion, the Director of Student Conduct for safekeeping will retain all recordings, if applicable, for two years from the time the final result of the complaint is reached.

20. If the party charged in a complaint has been properly served with a copy of the complaint and fails to attend the hearing, the judicial body may in its discretion continue the case for a reasonable time or may proceed to consider the alleged offenses, investigate the charges and arrive at a resolution.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR SEXUAL MISCONDUCT/DISCRIMINATION COMPLAINTS

a) For sexual misconduct complaints and other complaints of a sensitive nature, whether the alleged victim is serving as the complainant or as a witness, alternative testimony options will be given, such as placing a privacy screen in the hearing room, or allowing the alleged victim to testify from another room via closed circuit.

b) The past sexual history or sexual character of a party will not be admissible by the other party in hearings unless such evidence is determined to be highly relevant by the Chairperson. All such evidence sought to be admitted will be presumed irrelevant, and any request to overcome this presumption by the parties must be included in the complaint/response or a subsequent written request, and must be reviewed in advance of the hearing by Director of Student Conduct.

c) The alleged victim in any complaint alleging sexual misconduct will be notified in writing of the outcome and any sanction and will be kept apprised of the status of any appeal requests or grants.

Any conditions for readmission will be stated in the order of suspension.

7. Other than University Expulsion, conduct sanctions will not be made part of the student’s permanent record, but will become part of the student’s confidential record.

8. Upon graduation, the student’s confidential record may be expunged of conduct sanctions other than Residence Hall Expulsion, University Suspension or University Expulsion by the Director of Student Conduct.

9. Conduct records are maintained for seven (7) years.
Right of Appeal

1. A resolution reached by a conduct body may be appealed by the accused student(s) or the complainant(s) to the Director of Student Conduct or his/her designee. The right to appeal applies only in situations involving permanent record conduct actions (suspension, expulsion, and permanent removal from the residence halls). Appeals of sexual misconduct, violence and discrimination cases are outlined in related sections of the Code of Conduct.

2. The appeal must be made in writing using the BW appeal form and the Director of Student Conduct or his/her designee must receive the appeal within three (3) University business days of receiving the written resolution of the hearing body.

3. If an appeal is not filed with the Director of Student Conduct within three (3) University business days of the date the parties received the initial resolution, the right to appeal is waived and the original resolution becomes final.

4. An appeal, once written and properly requested, will be reviewed by the Director of Student Conduct for scope. The scope of the appeal, as identified by the appellant, will be limited to the following:
   a. New evidence, unavailable during the original hearing, surfaces that could be outcome determinative;

   e. Bias on the part of a conduct board member that deprived the process of impartiality.

5. If an appeal is denied by the Director of Student Conduct, the appellant will be notified in writing within five (5) University business days and the Director of Student Conduct will retain a record of the denial. Denial of the appeal means the disposition of the complaint by the hearing body is upheld.

6. If an appeal is granted by the Director of Student Conduct, the appellant will be notified in writing within five (5) University business days. An appeal hearing will be promptly scheduled by the Director of Student Conduct with the Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students or the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

student organization, or any other person to seek redress in the public judicial system for any civil or criminal injury which he/she believes has been done to him/her or it.

Amendment
1. Amendment by the Board of Trustees: This Code may be amended by action of the Board of Trustees of Baldwin Wallace University. Before the adoption of an amendment, the Student Affairs Committee of the Board will consult with the President, the faculty and the Student Senate concerning the proposed amendment, and after such consultation, submit its recommendations to the Board concerning the proposed amendment prior to the meeting at which such amendment is adopted.
University policies and procedures have been established to provide an environment conducive to human growth, to reflect the values to which Baldwin Wallace University (BW) subscribes, to recognize the proximity in which students live with one another, and to acknowledge the developmental capabilities of students as they progress through college. Baldwin Wallace’s expectations, policies and practices recognize opportunities afforded by the age of majority (18 years of age and older in Ohio) to the extent that they do not infringe upon the academic mission of the University, the sensibilities of others, the opportunities and settings that facilitate the coming together of persons of different persuasions and backgrounds, and the values that evolve from our heritage as a university related to the United Methodist Church.

Academic Honesty Policy can be found at https://my.bw.edu/Academics/Academic-Affairs/Documents/Academic%20Honesty%20Policy.pdf and is also made available through the Academic Affairs site on myBW (BW’s internal portal system).

Alcohol Policy
Baldwin Wallace University is located in a state and community which have laws and ordinances pertaining to the sale, possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages. Under Ohio law, a person must be 21 years old in order to consume or purchase beer or any other alcoholic beverage. It is against the law in the State of Ohio to carry an open bottle of any alcoholic beverage on the street or in a motor vehicle.

Additionally, students of legal drinking age are expected to act responsibly when consuming alcoholic beverages. As members of the BW Community, students have a responsibility to assist other students in duress due to irresponsible alcohol use.

In compliance with the law in the State of Ohio, and in the interest of the safety of all students, BW enforces the following alcohol policies.

- Baldwin Wallace prohibits the sale, possession, manufacture and consumption of alcoholic beverages in public areas of the University (including, but not limited to, areas outside University buildings, bathrooms, hallways, classrooms, stairwells, lounges).

- A person is not permitted to carry an open container of alcohol on the street, in a motor vehicle, on a motorcycle, or in public areas of the University.

- A person must be 21 years old to consume alcoholic beverages.

- Absolutely no alcohol is permitted in any residence hall room in which everyone present (including guests) is not 21 years of age or older.

- No alcoholic beverages are permitted in any of the freshman residence areas, the wellness halls, substance free living areas, or the SPROUT houses.

- If you are 21 years of age or older, you may consume alcohol in your room with the door closed.
• Public intoxication by persons of any age is prohibited.

• As student safety is the University’s main priority with regard to alcohol, we establish reasonable limits on alcohol amounts for those of legal age. The amount of alcohol allowed in a University-owned residence by a student who is of legal drinking age is limited to one unit per person of age, with a maximum of two units per room/apartment/house. One unit is defined as one case (24 – 12 oz. containers) of beer/malted beverage OR two (1 L) bottles of wine OR one (1L) bottle of spirits, OR a reasonable combination of these types.

• All drinking games (such as quarters, beer pong, boat races, etc.), at registered or non-registered campus functions, are prohibited.

• University funds cannot be used for the purchase of alcoholic beverages.

• Common source containers (e.g., kegs and beer balls) are prohibited.

• Devices for rapid consumption (e.g., funnels) and all other alcohol-related paraphernalia are prohibited.

• Persons serving or providing alcohol to minors are in violation of the University Alcohol Policy.

• Empty alcohol beverage containers are not permitted within the residence hall rooms/houses of students under the age of 21.

Registered Party
A “registered party” is defined as a party wherein alcohol may be consumed. Registered parties are permitted in the following locations: Student Activities Center, Pop Collins Tennis Courts, North Quad, Klein Field, and the Union. There are two types of parties that must be registered:

• Bring Your Own Beverage (BYOB) party must be approved and registered with the Union Administration Office at least two weeks prior to the event.

• F-Class Permit party must be approved and registered with the State of Ohio. An F-Class Permit party is a party where alcoholic beverages are sold.

Procedure for Approval of a Registered Party
The group sponsoring a registered party must observe the following procedures:

• If alcohol will be served at the party, the sponsoring group must obtain a permit form from the Union Administration Office, complete the form, send the completed form to the State of Ohio, and submit the State’s approval/denial form to the Union Administration Office. (Processing takes 3-5 weeks.)

• If the party is BYOB, the sponsoring group must obtain a registration form from the Union Administration Office, complete the form, and submit the form to the Union Administration Office for approval at least three (3) University business days prior to the party.
At all parties:

1. University ID’s will be checked or scanned in order to ascertain that individuals attending a registered party are of legal drinking age.

2. Students of legal drinking age must be identified by a hand stamp or wrist band.

3. The bar must be placed in an area with only one entrance.

4. The bartender must check each individual’s hand stamp or wrist band in order to ascertain that he/she is of legal drinking age.

5. If alcohol is being sold, only one alcoholic beverage may be purchased at a time.

6. If alcohol is being sold, at least one security officer and possibly more officers (depending on the size of the party) must be hired and present at the party.

7. An adequate supply of food and nonalcoholic beverages must be provided.

8. Registered parties may only be held on Fridays and Saturdays (unless otherwise approved) and the parties must be concluded by 1:30 AM.

9. The sale and/or distribution of alcohol must cease at 1:00 AM.

UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES

All visitors must also adhere to these requirements. If a student is intoxicated and University staff views the person as unable to care for him/herself, the staff will have the student transported to the hospital. This action will be taken to protect the student and the community, and will be the financial responsibility of the student.

The University maintains the right to dispose of alcohol in instances when a person under 21 is consuming, even if a person over 21 years of age is present, or when there is alcohol in excess of the established limits. In accordance with state law, grain alcohol is prohibited. Driving under the influence is both a violation of campus policy and an offense for which referrals for prosecution are made to local law enforcement authorities.

Baldwin Wallace affirms the principle that students, faculty and staff have a right to be free from any type of discrimination or intimidation by any member of the University Community or his/her guest(s) with respect to sexual orientation, racial or ethnic background, religious beliefs, disability, gender, or age. Discrimination or intimidation in any form is unacceptable conduct.

Drug Policy and Procedures
The use, possession, sale and/or distribution of illegal and unauthorized drugs is a serious matter involving violations of Federal and Ohio laws and against Baldwin Wallace University policy.

Reasonable suspicion of drug use may exist when marijuana is smelled and any one of the following circumstances occurs:

- Presence of drug paraphernalia such as, but not limited to bongs and clips
- Towels under a door
- Tape around a door
- Fans blowing in at otherwise unlikely time or manner
- Absence of ashtrays in presence of smoke or odor of smoking
- Open air freshener or laundry sheets
- Presence of paper towel cardboard cores
- Burning of incense or candles which are prohibited for safety reasons

Residents of the room are responsible for all behavior in the room, as are any other persons in the room at the time the offense occurs.

In determining the sanctions for violations of the drug policy, the University conduct body will consider all circumstances of the complaint, including the drug involved, the particular act, the number of prior violations by the student, and the threat to the safety and health of the University Community in general. The University considers the sale/distribution of drugs to others to be a particularly serious offense.

Being uncooperative or refusing to comply with the directions of a University official, including Resident Assistants and Hall Directors, is prohibited.

• Tampering with fire safety equipment, such as fire extinguishers, pull stations, fire alarms, and smoke detectors, is prohibited.

Gambling Policy
Students are expected to abide by the federal laws and the laws of the State of Ohio prohibiting illegal gambling, including online gaming. Gambling for money or other things of value on campus or at University-sponsored activities is prohibited except as permitted by law.

Such prohibited activity includes, but is not limited to, betting on, wagering on, or selling pools on any BW, University or professional athletic event; possessing on one’s person or premises (e.g., room, residence unit, car) any card, book or other device for registering bets; knowingly permitting the use of one’s premises or one’s telephone or other electronic communications device for illegal gambling; knowingly receiving or delivering a letter, package or parcel related to illegal gambling; offering, soliciting or accepting a bribe to influence the outcome of an athletic event; and, involvement in bookmaking or wagering pools with respect to sporting events.
Hazing

All acts of hazing by any individual student, or University registered student club or organization, or any of its members or alumni are prohibited. Students are entitled to be treated with consideration and respect, and no individual may perform an act that is likely to cause physical or psychological harm or social ostracism to any other person within the University Community. Accordingly, the following behavior is expressly forbidden as hazing when related to the admission, initiation, pledging, joining, or any other group-affiliation activity:

- a. Physical abuse (on or off campus), including but not limited to paddling, slapping, kicking, choking, scratching, exposure to extreme water temperatures (i.e. cold or hot), and the consumption of disgusting and/or dangerous concoctions;

Departmental/Provost/HR record
As an institution of higher education founded on the value of inclusion and believing that our diversity is an enduring strength of BW, we value the vibrant exchange of ideas among all members of our community.

This founding principle is represented by a community of individuals who demonstrate respect and care for each other. Meaningful dialogue regarding issues and concerns raised by members of the University community is a vehicle to help us better celebrate what we hold in common and to respect and understand our differences. Respecting the right of each individual to express his or her beliefs and ideas, we expect that this dialog will occur peacefully and in non-violent ways.

To this end, freedom of speech and expression is valued throughout the community. This is true for all speech except that which violates the rights of others to live and learn in a safe environment free from discrimination, harassment or threat of physical harm, is unlawful, violates University policy, is destructive to property or is grossly offensive on matters that are outlined in the University’s non-discrimination standards.

At times, the expression of free speech may take place in the form of organized efforts to communicate a perspective publicly. In exercising free speech, the University requires that demonstrations (including, but not limited to, protests, sit-ins or rallies) be officially sponsored and registered with the University and must adhere to all University policies.

The use of Baldwin Wallace campus facilities for demonstration events or the assistance of Baldwin Wallace staff in providing guidance to students does not imply acceptance or endorsement by the University of the views expressed.

Event Registration

- All areas of the demonstration registration form must ideally be completed at least (2) business days prior to the event to provide notice of the planned protest, rally or demonstration.
- This notice allows university staff to work with student organizers to ensure the event meets the guidelines of BW and local policies, as well as to provide assistance in order to enhance the learning experience related to protest and demonstration involvement.

Guidelines for Events

- Only Baldwin Wallace students, faculty, staff or recognized BW campus groups/organizations may register and facilitate demonstrations on University property.
- Demonstrations led by those who are not Baldwin Wallace students, faculty or staff are not permitted on University property. If any individuals who are not members of the University community are invited by a University community member to participate in the demonstration on campus, the University expects those individuals to abide by this policy as well, or face a possible range of actions, including, but not limited to, removal from campus and/or possible criminal action.
- Groups demonstrating must clearly indicate to their organization, media, and audience that the views and opinions expressed through the demonstration are not necessarily the views and opinions of Baldwin Wallace University, its students, alumni, employees, partners or contractors. Students participating in demonstrations represent themselves and not the University.
- All questions about demonstrations and the opinions and views presented through demonstrations should be directed to Student Affairs. This includes academic and co-curricular activities which are scheduled on campus. The VP for Student Affairs will engage other BW staff as necessary, to ensure that all related standards are met.
• Campus security will define appropriate demonstration areas in relation to access to buildings and flow of pedestrians to and from an event.
• Organizers are expected to follow campus policies related to event signage and noise (following city of Berea quiet hours).
• Organizers are responsible for complete clean-up of the event space, or may face fines or additional repercussions.

Conduct that will not be tolerated during demonstrations and protests
• Protesters may neither impede nor harass individuals wishing to attend a class or event, or to see or hear a speaker/performer.
• Conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person, including but not limited to, causing bodily harm to an individual; making physical contact of an insulting or provoking nature with an individual; reckless disregard for the health or safety of any person or any threat or physically threatening behavior which creates reasonable fear for a person’s safety.
• Damage to personal or campus property.
• If demonstration participants choose to engage in activity that does not prioritize safety or respect University property, the attendees generally will be warned before being asked to leave the event. However, if a significant concern about the safety of any community member or the University as a whole arises, as determined by Safety and Security or University administration, the University may remove a participant or terminate the event without first issuing a warning.
TOBACCO AND SMOKE-FREE POLICY

In the interest of the health, safety, and comfort of students, faculty, staff, and campus visitors, smoking is prohibited on all university-owned or leased property. This policy applies to faculty, staff, students, visitors, subcontractors, consultants, and vendors. This prohibition includes all university buildings, athletic and recreational facilities, parking lots and university owned, or personal vehicles being driven or parked on campus.

Tobacco use means the personal use of any tobacco product, whether lighted or not, including but not limited to: cigarettes, pipes, cigars, e-cigarettes, smokeless and chewing tobacco.

Employees are authorized and encouraged to communicate this policy with courtesy, respect and diplomacy. If an employee refuses to comply with this policy, Human Resources shall be notified. If a student refuses to comply with this policy, the Office of Student Conduct shall be notified. If contractors, consultants, visitors, or vendors refuse to comply with the policy, the Safety and Security Department should be contacted. Individuals violating the policy should initially be reminded about the policy. Continuing violations may also result in appropriate disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

Tobacco is a leading cause of death in the United States. BW encourages any employee or student who uses tobacco to quit. More information on tobacco and smoking cessation programs can be obtained from Human Resources or the Student Health Center.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY:
Acceptable Use of Technology
Resources and Copyright Infringement
Policies

Statement of General Policy
Baldwin Wallace University provides access to information technologies for the private, non-commercial educational, research, cultural, and recreational uses of its students, faculty, and staff. These same technologies are also used by the University in support of its business functions. Limited access is also extended to guests. A primary function of institutions of higher education is to foster the free investigation and discussion of ideas. Electronic media play an important role in this endeavor and are governed by the same policies and protections as traditional print and broadcast media. Any restriction, control, and/or editing of the content of electronic media will be consistent with state and local laws and University policies.

Privacy of Electronic Communications and Data
Person-to-person electronic communications are private. The upload and download of information is also private. The contents of an individual's computer files are also accorded the same confidentiality. There may be times during the process of maintaining the network systems, inspecting the contents of damaged files, or in the process of data recovery, that the contents of a user’s email or stored files may be viewed. Data stored on public or shared network drives or servers, as well as public computers, cannot be fully-protected from view or access. The University does monitor network behavior and activity for security and operational efficiency. This data is recorded and disposed of periodically. Review of such communication only occurs when required by law or a legal process served upon the University, or in extraordinary circumstances to protect the well-being of members of the community or the property or educational mission of BW.

Access to Off-Campus Information
Baldwin Wallace University supports the scholarly examination of ideas which requires complete access to the facilities of the Internet and other electronic media. Any attempt to limit the availability of information to members of the BW community must be undertaken with justification and the widest possible support. Because information found on the Internet is not widely controlled, checked, or censored, members of the BW community are asked to practice good judgment in filtering what is appropriate.

Content of Publicly-Available Material
The content of materials posted or opinions expressed by members of the BW community (students, faculty, or staff) on individually-owned public websites or social media sites shall not be assumed to be those of the institution and responsibility for it lies with the originators. It should be noted that some speech (e.g. obscenity, libel) is NOT protected by the First Amendment and that some uses of information (e.g. plagiarism) or web activities (e.g. posting extremely high-activity pages) degrade the performance of the entire system, thus conflicting with the purpose of the facilities. Infractions of the law will be reported to the appropriate authorities and activities that interfere with the mission of the University may result in restricted or discontinued access to the facilities.
Commercial Use of the Facilities
The facilities of the University are not to be used for the direct benefit of non-BW organizations or businesses without the express written permission of an officer of the University. This includes the outside business interests of students, faculty, and staff.

Misuse of the Shared Electronic Facilities
Members of the BW community are expected to refrain from activities which interfere with the proper functioning of the University’s computer systems or infringe on the rights of other members to make use of the shared information technology resources. Such activities include, for example:

- Any unauthorized attempt to modify computer equipment or peripherals owned by BW
- Any unauthorized attempt to add, delete, or modify, or duplicate copyrighted software (such as operating systems, compilers, utility routines, graphics, games, etc.) owned by BW
- Attempted or actual use of accounts, files, or passwords without authorization from the owner
- Reading, copying, modifying, or deleting private files (including those belonging to any students, faculty, staff, or the University’s administrative or academic files) without proper authorization
- Using the University’s network to communicate messages to others that are harassing, offensive, or obscene
- Attempting to crash the BW servers, intranet, or public electronic networks
- Violating intellectual property rights or copyrights in data or programs
- Destruction, damage, or theft of equipment, software, or data belonging to BW
- Giving unauthorized persons access to BW facilities by divulging passwords
- Establishing an individual wireless network on campus or connecting any device (other than a computer) to the network without authorization from the IT Department

Disciplinary Procedures – Student Misuse
Suspected misuse of the facilities should be reported to the CIO, who is authorized to determine if there has been a violation of policy or law and refer student violators to the Office of Judicial Affairs for resolution. Pending the outcome, access to the shared technology resources may immediately be restricted or suspended. In some cases, limited or monitored access will be provided to the facilities needed for University-related activities, such as classes. Except in extraordinary circumstances, the situation will be discussed with the person suspected to see if a resolution can be made. If not, the matter will be turned over to the appropriate University or public authority. If the misuse involves violations of local, state, or federal law, the appropriate authorities will be informed.

Copyright Infringement
Copyright infringement involves the reproduction or distribution of a copyrighted work without permission or legal authority. The unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material, including unauthorized peer-to-peer file sharing, is subject to civil and/or criminal penalties. Violations that occur on BW Internet traffic are reported to the IT Department by our Internet service provider.

Baldwin Wallace University, in compliance with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA), Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA), and Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA), takes quick action when notified of an alleged copyright infringement occurring from a computer connected to the campus network. Incidents are referred to the appropriate campus officials and steps are taken to stop unauthorized downloading or distribution of copyrighted materials. The RIAA can monitor network traffic at colleges and universities to identify illegal activity. Penalties can be severe.
Actions resulting from the discovery of copyright infringement include the following steps:

- Identify the computer responsible for the violation and contact the owner
- Notify the owner to cease all further activity involving illegal file sharing or copyright infringement
- Require the deletion of illegally acquired files
- Notify the Director of Residence of Life and Judicial Affairs (resident students)
- Schedule an official hearing with Judicial Affairs (students)
- Require a written essay on the topic of copyright infringement (students)
- Impose probationary sanctions for residency (resident students)
- Possible probationary sanctions for athletic participation (students)

Members of the BW community are cautioned against the use of peer-to-peer applications which pose security risks and potential legal issues. By default, many of these programs can extract confidential information and share with third parties. Viruses and malware are frequently associated with these programs.

Summary of Civil and Criminal Penalties for Violation of Federal Copyright Laws

Copyright infringement is the act of exercising, without permission or legal authority, one or more of the exclusive rights granted to the copyright owner under section 106 of the Copyright Act (Title 17 of the United States Code). These rights include the right to reproduce or distribute a copyrighted work. In the file-sharing context, downloading or uploading substantial parts of a copyrighted work without authority constitutes an infringement. Penalties for copyright infringement include civil and criminal penalties. In general, anyone found liable for civil copyright infringement may be ordered to pay either actual damages or “statutory” damages affixed at not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 per work infringed. For “willful” infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. A court can, in its discretion, also assess costs and attorneys’ fees. For details, see Title 17, United States Code, Section 504, 505. Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment of up to five years and fines of up to $250,000 per offense (www.copyright.gov).

2018 - 2019 STUDENT ORGANIZATION TRAVEL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Travel off-campus by recognized BW student organizations is overseen by the Office of Risk Management. This section highlights parts of their off-campus travel policy. Please see the Office of Risk Management myBW site for complete information. Questions about student organization travel can be directed to the Office of Risk Management at 440-826-2444.

What is Student Organization Travel?
Baldwin Wallace University Student Organization Off-Campus Travel is defined as any off-campus experience that is sponsored by a recognized Baldwin Wallace student organization. Such travel includes, but is not limited to, retreats, conferences, conventions, competitions, workshops, field trips, off-campus speakers or rallies. The travel must be approved by the organization’s faculty/staff advisor and should support the mission of the organization.

What is a Recognized Student Organization?
A recognized student organization at Baldwin Wallace University is one who has had their charter approved by both the Office of Student Activities and Student Senate and has registered with the Office of Student Activities by the Friday of the 5th week of the fall semester each academic year. A recognized student organization does not have to receive funding from Student Government.

Registering a Student Organization Trip
Student organizations traveling off-campus must register their trip with the Office of Risk Management at least 24 hours before the trip by completing the online registration form at www.bw.edu/travel-registration and the online roster form at www.bw.edu/travel-registration-roster.

Student Organization Travel Policy
Before registering their travel, a student organization should read the Student Organization Off-Campus Travel Policy, as registering their trip means they agree to all terms and conditions outlined in the policy.

Compliance with University Policies
All participants must understand that University policies, outlined in this Student Handbook, for faculty, staff and students are still in effect and apply to trips regardless of the location. Instructional activities and settings should be consistent with BW policies including, but not limited to, policies on alcohol and drug use, vehicle use, student misconduct, principles of academic freedom policy on sexual harassment and consensual relationships.

Forms
Students must complete the following REQUIRED FORMS for all overnight travel: Trip Participant Emergency Contact Information, Health Information Statement and the Student Agreement Statement and Waiver. These forms can be found on the myBW site for the Office of Risk Management.

Failure to Comply
Failure to comply with these policies may result in revocation of travel allowances for the entire organization for a length of time to be determined by the Director of Risk Management and the Vice President for Student Affairs and possible adjudication by Student Conduct.
Basic Behavior Policy
Students who participate in an Explorations/Study Abroad program must have a clear student conduct record and/or be approved by the Student Conduct Office. Serious or multiple violations of University policy may jeopardize eligibility for Explorations programs. Students will not be eligible for a program if he/she has been found in violation of any of the following policies within the past 12 months: Alcohol, drugs, assault (any type), harassment, stalking, vandalism, theft and more (this list is not all-inclusive).

If a violation occurs after the student has been admitted, but before the program start date, the University reserves the right to exercise its authority in removing him/her from the off-campus program.

- Probation: If a student has violated any Student Handbook policy and is placed on Conduct Probation as a sanction, the student will be dismissed from the program automatically and the program/application removal will be final. *See Cancellation/Refund Policy Below.
- If a student has received a written warning or an educational assignment, then the student may appeal to the Explorations/Study Abroad Office. Explorations in conjunction with the Dean of Students and Student Conduct will determine the appropriate outcome.

General Cancellation/Refund Policy
A participant in any Explorations program who cancels or who is dismissed from a program is subject to all pre-paid expenses for the program and a $300 cancellation fee.

The University provides access to many unique programs in which students, or others, may enroll and participate throughout the world. This cancellation refund schedule is to be used only as a general guide as each individual program may have different requirements and refund schedules. If money, on your behalf, has been paid for any off-campus program, the University will request return of the monies paid according to the refund policy of the partner institution/organization. There are no refunds on any DEPOSITS made by or for the student. (Students should be aware that deposits for accommodations, tuition, and other fees must often be sent by Baldwin Wallace University to the host institution several months in advance of the term in which the student will enroll. Baldwin Wallace University has no control over the return policies of other institutions/organizations.)

In all cases, the refund schedule, if any, for a particular program takes precedent over schedules provided here. Absent any specific program refund policy, all University-arranged programs will be bound by the following cancellation policy: A full refund (minus any non-refundable deposits or fees) that has been advanced or paid on your behalf will be made if cancellation is made prior to 60 days of the program start date. Cancellations that occur between 59-30 days will receive a refund of 75%. Cancellations, for any reason, that occur within 30 days of the program start date will receive no refund. All refunds, of any kind, will be tendered as credits against the student account at Baldwin Wallace University. Credit balance refunds may be obtained from the University through the normal refund process.
The policies of Baldwin Wallace University residential living are designed with you, the resident, in mind. A “resident student” is defined as a Baldwin Wallace student who has applied, been accepted and paid for housing in a Baldwin Wallace University residence hall or apartment. As a resident, you have the right to live in a safe, peaceful and secure environment, and you have the responsibility to uphold your rights and the rights of others.

Each resident is responsible for reading and adhering to the following policies and procedures so that you fully understand and appreciate your rights and responsibilities while living in Baldwin Wallace campus housing. If you have any additional questions, ask a member of the residence hall staff for you will be held accountable for all new and existing policies and procedures.

Residence Life Procedures

Abandoned Property
The University reserves the right to remove any personal belongings left behind in any room or apartment when a resident is no longer a student, has checked out, or at the end of the academic year. Residents will be notified via their BW e-mail address with instructions for retrieving the items. The University may discard or dispose of all abandoned belongings thirty days after the date of initial notification.

Air Conditioning for Non-Air Conditioned Rooms/Apartments
Baldwin Wallace University requires students to provide documentation of their diagnosis (from a physician or health care provider) and complete the Air Conditioner Request form in order to have a window air conditioner unit installed in their residence hall room. These are the only types of air conditioners allowed in campus residences.

A request for use of a personal air conditioner (A/C) in your campus residence will be approved under the following conditions:

1. You must have a history of a chronic medical condition that necessitates use of an A/C.
2. You must complete the Air Conditioner Request form and send it to the Office of Residence Life.
3. You must have your physician or healthcare provider complete the Chronic Medical Condition Verification Form (included within the Air Conditioner Request form) and submit it as documentation of your chronic medical condition to the Office of Residence Life.

Please NOTE:

1. The diagnosing professional may not be a family member.
2. “Seasonal Allergies” is not a chronic medical condition.
3. A note on a prescription pad is not an acceptable form of documentation.
4. It is the student’s responsibility to confirm receipt of the documentation.
5. All documentation can be faxed to the Office of Residence Life at 440-826-3730.
Upon receipt of the documentation and request form, the Office of Residence Life will evaluate your air conditioner request. Students whose request has been approved will be sent a confirmation email. Once approved, it is your responsibility to:

1. Purchase the air conditioner. The unit must be a window unit, portable, less than 6,000 BTU’s, and be able to plug into a 110 volt electrical outlet.
2. Bring your air conditioner on the check-in date listed on your Air Conditioner Request Form. There will not be any Residence Life staff available to grant you access to drop off the unit before your check-in date.
3. Have the portable unit in your room ready to install. Please leave it out in the open so it is visible to the installers. Installation will be delayed if the unit is not available when Buildings and Grounds Department (B&G) arrives.
4. Make arrangements with B&G (440-826-2233) to have the unit removed at the close of the academic year.

Please NOTE:

1. All Air Conditioner Request forms must be received by the Office of Residence Life by August 1st in order to be considered for the upcoming year.
2. Installation of your unit will occur within ten (10) business days of your check-in date. Our B&G department works diligently to install all air conditioners based on the check-in date provided on the request form. Since they get many requests at the beginning of the school year, it is advisable to submit your request and documentation early for prompt installation.
3. No units will be installed after October 1st.

Bicycles
Bicycle racks are located near all residence halls and apartments. Bicycles should be locked at all times. For safety reasons, bicycles may not be stored in stairwells, hallways, lounges, lobbies, corridors, porches, overhangs or other public areas; bicycles stored in these areas will be removed. Bicycles left on campus may be discarded after May 31st of each year. Bicycles with motors may not be stored in resident rooms or indoor bicycle storage areas.

Card Readers
All residence halls have been wired with a keyless card reader entry system. There is a $10.00 charge for loss of a card. New cards are obtained at the Campus Access Services office (formerly known as the ID Office - located in the Union) during business hours.

Check-in/Check-out/Room Condition Reports
Occupying a space you are not assigned to or occupying your assigned space prior to or after the approved time to do so will result in a $125.00 improper occupancy fee. When you move into a room or apartment, you must complete the Room Condition Report. The condition of your campus housing should be thoroughly checked and recorded. Based on the check-in Room Condition Report, you will be charged for any damage that occurs during the time you occupy the room, apartment or house. Therefore, you must complete the Room Condition Report both upon check-in and check-out. Failure to do so will result in a $125.00 fee plus, if applicable, a $65.00 lock change plus any additional key replacement fees if the keys are not returned at the time of check out to a residence life staff member. This $125.00 charge will be assessed to any resident who does not sign their name, date the Room Condition Report, and officially check out with a residence hall staff member.
Consolidation
Residents who find themselves with an open bed in their room or apartment may face consolidation. Residents in a room or apartment with an open bed must do one of the following by the third Monday of each semester, or no later than five calendar days from the date the bed becomes available:

- request a space buyout and pay the additional charge
- have another student move into the open bed
- make their room available for the Office of Residence Life to assign a new roommate*
- transfer to another room or apartment with an open bed. An exact additional charge may be obtained by contacting the Office of Residence Life at 440-826-2114.

*It is the responsibility of the resident(s) to maintain the room as “roommate ready”, which means at any time, a new person may move in and have their bed, dresser, desk, and an equal share of the closet/wardrobe space immediately available to them. If at any time the room is deemed not roommate ready, either a $100 charge will be assessed or the resident(s) may be charged the buyout rate.

If no action is taken, the Office of Residence Life reserves the right to bill the resident the buyout rate.

Entry of Student Rooms/Apartments
Occasionally it is necessary for University staff members to enter campus housing to fulfill maintenance and repair requests or to conduct inspections to ensure the observance of basic safety and health standards. While fulfilling their administrative responsibility to enforce University and Residence Life policies and to ensure the well-being of residents, members of the Office of Residence Life staff may enter campus housing at any time.

A. Buildings and Grounds Personnel: Buildings and Grounds (B&G) will enter campus housing when a work order is submitted to make requested repairs and will assume permission to enter has been given at the time the request for repair was made.

B. Residence Life Staff: An inspection of campus housing will be conducted at least once each semester, or as needed, to ensure the observance of basic safety, hygiene, fire and health standards, and to recover University furniture not issued to campus housing. When possible, a courtesy notice will be given for room inspection, either by posting signs or by email. If the resident is not present during the inspection, two staff members (one which will be a Hall Director or Area Coordinator) will conduct the inspection. Anytime a residence life staff member enters an unoccupied room/apartment, they are required to lock the door as they leave.

As a matter of courtesy, staff members shall knock on the door, announce who they are, and ask for the door to be opened. If there is no response or an unusual delay in opening the door, the staff member will use a master key to enter.
Housing Requirement Policy
Baldwin Wallace University believes that living on campus is an important part of the overall university experience and enhances student success. Therefore, all full-time students (12 credit hours per semester) are required to live in University housing their first and second year entering Baldwin Wallace University.

Exceptions will be made for the following reasons (documentation will be required for b thru g):

a. Students 21 years of age or older prior to September for that academic year
b. Commuters - students who are residing with their parents or legal guardians at the parent’s or legal guardian’s permanent address, which must be within a 50 mile radius of campus (The exemption form must be notarized by a Notary Public)
c. Students who are married, divorced, or widowed
d. Single parents with a dependent child
e. Military personnel with one or more years of active duty
f. Students who have lived on a university campus for four consecutive semesters
g. Students needing medical accommodations that the University is unable to provide

Only undergraduate students aged 17-24 are permitted to live on campus. Undergraduate students under 17 or older than 24 who wish to live in campus housing must petition the Director of Residence Life. Graduate student housing is available as space permits.

Keys
Each resident is issued keys to their assigned campus housing. These keys are not transferable (e.g. loaned to other people) and may not be duplicated. When a room key is lost, a $65.00 lock change fee plus $12.00 for any additional lost keys (e.g. mailbox, exterior, etc.) will be assessed. If a new key is issued and the original key is found, no refunds will be made.

If keys are stolen and the theft is reported to the police in the jurisdiction the theft occurred in, there will be no charge for the lock change. A police report must be provided to the Office of Residence Life in order for the charges to be waived.

Kitchens
Special attention needs to be given to the cleanliness of hall kitchens. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to restrict or remove kitchen use privileges if the following are not adhered to:

- Residents are responsible for washing their own dishes in a timely manner (dishes and other belongings that are left in the kitchen or fridge will be discarded).
- Residents are expected to be present in the kitchen while any burner, oven or microwave is in use.
- At the end of each semester the hall kitchen refrigerator will be emptied and cleaned.

Lockout Policy
A Lockout Request form will be filled out every time a staff member has to let a student into their room/apartment. After the first lockout, the student will be billed a $5.00 charge per lockout. Residents requiring access to their residence hall room when the halls are closed during breaks (winter and spring) will be charged a $15.00 fee. The master key will not be used to let students into rooms they are not assigned to, even for the retrieval of personal property.
Mandatory Meetings
Residence Life staff members will schedule floor/wing or hall meetings to communicate important information to residents. These meetings are considered mandatory for all residents of the floor/wing or hall, and will be publicized as such. If a resident is unable to attend a mandatory floor, wing or hall meeting, they are still required to know the information and are responsible for contacting a staff member to discuss information shared during the meeting.

Medical Condition(s) That May Affect Room Assignment
Residents needing housing accommodations related to a disability or health condition must submit documentation to Disability Services for Students (DSS). All attempts will be made to provide reasonable accommodations for every student who has a documented disability. Due to the various physical designs of each residential facility, housing options may be limited for students who present a need for housing accommodations. Students returning to the residence halls for the following year must request accommodations and provide documentation by the end of February each year.

Mental Health Emergencies: Aftercare Consultation and Evaluation
Residents who experience mental health emergencies may be required to leave campus housing for a period of time in order to receive care. In order for the University to consider the return of a student to campus housing, a resident may be required to meet with a Counselor at Baldwin Wallace University’s Counseling Center to provide information that would assist in determining the following:

1. Whether the resident poses a substantial danger or risk to their own health or the health and well-being of other persons within the campus community.
2. Whether the resident is likely to be seriously disruptive to the educational process or mission of the University.

The Director of Residence Life, in consultation with Vice President of Student Affairs and using the above criteria along with other information available to the Office of Residence Life, will determine whether the resident may reside on campus.

Please refer to the Involuntary Withdrawal Policy (available through the Office of Student Affairs) for related information.

Personal Property
Baldwin Wallace University is not responsible for the loss of any personal property. Residents are encouraged to carry personal property insurance and to lock their doors at all times to prevent easy access and possible theft. Residents should check with their family to determine the extent of coverage. Items of value are encouraged to be taken home over breaks.

Posting
All signs, flyers, door hangers, etc. to be posted in Residence Halls/Apartments need to be approved by the Office of Residence Life in advance. Once approved, signs and flyers should be attached to designated bulletin boards/posting areas using only masking tape or blue painter’s tape. Postings are not to be affixed to glass surfaces that effect entering and leaving a room, hallway or building. Any item not adhering to these guidelines will be removed. Damage resulting from signs, flyers, etc. may result in charges being assessed to the group, organization or individual that posted the information. Only residence hall staff is authorized to post on student room doors.
Power Outages
During a building-wide power outage, residence hall staff members will make frequent rounds until the power returns. A power outage in no way alters the regulation that prohibits the burning of candles or any open-flame device in campus housing.

Room Condition
The following guidelines apply to all campus housing:
- Residents are responsible for all University furniture in their rooms.
- Residents may not remove any University-owned furnishings from their rooms, nor may they detach any furnishings that are attached to the walls (dressers, desks, mirrors, beds, etc.).
- Any furniture brought into a shared room by a resident that is not meant for use by all residents of the room (e.g. beds, printers, desks, chairs, etc.) may not take up a larger percentage of space in the room than would be allotted to each resident (i.e. 50% of a double, 33% of a triple, etc.).
- Residents may not remove University furnishings from the lobby, lounges or any public or private areas of campus housing. A fine will be assessed up to $75.00 to $100.00 per item.
- Furniture, walls, ceilings and floors must be in the same condition at check-out as check-in or a charge for damage will be assessed.
- Residents assigned to the Front Street Residence Hall, Heritage Hall C wing, Lang Hall and Amelia Harding Hall may not affix anything to the exterior or interior of their room door. Residents in the Davidson Commons may not affix anything to either side of their suite, room or bathroom doors.
- Painting, wall borders, contact paper and wall paper are prohibited. This includes attempts to repair damage already done.
- No alterations may be made to electrical fixtures or wiring. No electrical wiring (i.e. lights sets, extension cords, etc.) is to be on the exterior of the room door.
- Nothing may be hanging from the ceiling or near fire safety equipment.
- Residents may not hang or drape any materials from the furnishings in a room.
- Any window treatments and carpet that is kept in campus housing must be nonflammable. Curtains may be hung using tension rods in the window frames. Drilling holes in walls or using nails/screws to hang curtain rods is prohibited.
- Carpet may not be glued or taped to the floor. Area rugs are recommended, rather than wall-to-wall carpeting. Electrical wires should not be run beneath any rug, carpet or door.
- Any materials installed on walls must be nonflammable. Crepe paper or other material may not be wrapped around any light fixture.
- Tacks, screws, nails, duct tape etc. may not be used on the walls, ceilings or furniture. All tape and adhesives must be fully removable from the wall/ceilings.
- Screens must be kept in the windows at all times. Radio transmitters and exterior antennas are not permitted.
- All furniture, decorations (borders, posters, construction paper, stickers, etc.), and other materials that were not on the Room Condition Report must be removed when a student changes rooms or vacates the room.
- Rooms with individual shower curtains issued at check-in must be cleaned and hung at check-out.
- Homemade lofts are not permitted in campus housing - there are commercial companies not affiliated with the University that provide rental lofts for resident use. The University cannot accept responsibility or liability for those rental companies.
Room Selection
Room Selection is an online process where current students can select housing for the next academic year. Selection times will be randomly assigned to residents based on the number of earned credit hours at the end of the preceding fall semester. Students are required to pay a $150.00 housing deposit or have a deposit on file in order to participate in room selection. Prior to room selection residents will be able to view their countdown on https://bw.erezlife.com/. Complete Room Selection procedures are made available prior to selection. Current students interested in apartment living and/or special interest housing are required to apply and participate in the appropriate special selection process. Official Residence Life publications are the only valid source of Room Selection information, and information is updated yearly.

Security
The Office of Residence Life offers a variety of services that contribute to the development of a safe and pleasant living environment, including security cameras in select locations. However, the campus community is not immune to crime. Creating a safe living environment is the responsibility of all community members. Therefore, all residents should promote safety in the residence halls/apartment/houses by following these guidelines:

- All guests must be escorted at all times by a resident of the building while in campus housing.
- Confront and/or report any unescorted non-residents to the Hall Director, RA, or Safety and Security.
- Suspicious activity should be reported immediately to Safety and Security. Special awareness of security is needed during vacation periods when there are fewer students on campus.
- Do not prop open any doors, or block exit doors or fire exits at any time.
- Close any door that you find propped open.
- While not in your room, or sleeping, make sure the door to your room is closed and locked. It only takes a few seconds to enter an unlocked room and take valuables.
- Forceful entry into any residence hall door (by pulling/yanking the door to open) will result in disciplinary action.
- Broken locks and lights, lost keys, or any other potential security problems should be reported to your Hall Director, RA or Safety and Security as soon as possible.

Sustainability in the Residence Halls
Save Energy

- Turn off your laptop, monitor, printer, room lights, television, radio, etc. when not being used and when you leave your room. Turning off your computer equipment reduces heat stress and wear on your system while saving energy. Screen savers do not save energy.
- Use CFLs (compact fluorescent lamp bulbs) or LEDs (light emitting diode bulbs) in your desk lamp.
- Use power strips to plug in your laptop, printer, cell phone charger, gaming console, television, etc. Turn off the power strip when you are asleep or off to class.
- Buy energy efficient ENERGY STAR ® electronics and appliances such as televisions, laptops, computer monitors, Blu-ray and DVD players, printers, lamps, and small refrigerators.
- In cooler months, do not open your window to cool your room.
Manage Waste

- Discuss with your roommate and suitemates how to reduce consumption of disposable products as much as possible and to re-use and recycle those products you do bring into your room.
- Use the blue recycling containers provided in your room for all your recyclables: metal, plastic, glass, paper and cardboard.
- Minimize your purchase and use of disposable glass, plastic and paper containers. Buy and use products in containers that can be reused and/or recycled.
- "Green clean" with reusable washcloth or sponge, not paper towels. Use green cleaning products available at local convenience stores.
- Recycle – all together – METAL, GLASS, PAPER and PLASTIC
  - Single Stream Recycling occurs in all traditional residence halls, suites, and apartments. This makes recycling all the easier as you do not need to separate your recyclables!
  - Rinse glass bottles and jars, aluminum and tin cans, and plastic containers and store them in your personal recycling bin.
  - Recyclable plastics can be placed in campus recycling containers include beverage bottles; microwavable food trays; laundry, dish and shampoo containers; and common food containers for yogurt, butter, salad dressing, milk and juice.
  - Mixed paper includes unwanted mail, pizza boxes and cereal boxes, flattened corrugated cardboard, waxed cardboard beverage containers and virtually every other paper product.
  - Always store recyclables in your personal recycling bin before carrying them to the labeled recycling container (in floor hallways, lounges, lobbies, most laundry rooms) or the green recycling containers outside your building.
  - Reuse plastic shopping bags as trash can liners before discarding them.
  - Recycle plastic grocery bags at Giant Eagle.
  - Avoid paper waste by using the double-sided function on your printer and recycling pages until you've printed on both sides or used them for notes and messages. Edit your documents on screen and by using the print preview function rather than printing drafts.

Other Tips:

- Eat-in whenever possible. Limit use of disposable cups and food containers to those items you carry out of the dining room or restaurant. Always use glass/dishware when you can.
- Bring a reusable water bottle to avoid having to buy water. Each residence hall has reverse osmosis water fountain for filling your water bottles.
- Bring a backpack or reusable shopping bag for your books, water bottle, snacks, etc.
- Recycle corrugated cardboard boxes that you bring to move-in day. We will provide a notice on where to drop off your cardboard for recycling.
- Encourage others to make "reduce, reuse and recycle" their everyday habit.
- At the end of the year, donate unwanted clothes, electronics, bookcases, bicycles, carpets, small appliances, etc. at designated locations in each residence hall. Look for the “Leave it Behind” boxes.

Telephone/Electronic Harassment

Telephone and electronic forms of harassment are prohibited. Specifically, Baldwin Wallace University prohibits the making or sending of anonymous, obscene, harassing, or abusive calls and messages. If a student is experiencing harassing phone calls or electronic messages they should notify their Hall Director or Safety and Security at 440-826-2000. For more information about e-mail harassment see Information Technology’s Access and E-Mail Policy as well as the University Policies in the Student Code of Conduct.
Thefts
All students should take precautions against thefts. Most thefts that occur in the residential units occur as CRIMES OF OPPORTUNITY when a student leaves their room without locking their door or when they leave their laundry unattended in a laundry room. Most thefts can be prevented by eliminating these situations. Students are advised to keep room doors locked at all times. If a theft does occur, students should report it immediately to their Resident Assistant and the Office of Safety and Security. Lost Jacket Express Cards should also be reported to Campus Access Services and deactivated. Students may also assist by notifying Safety and Security personnel immediately of any suspicious people on campus.

Vacation/Breaks
The Residence Halls are closed during winter and spring breaks. Residents may leave personal property in their rooms during these breaks at their own risk, provided that all personal items are removed from the floor and away from the heating units to facilitate cleaning or maintenance. Residents may not leave personal belongings in the hallways, lounges and public bathroom during breaks. Residents must apply to reside on campus over winter and spring break by the posted deadlines. Failure to apply by the posted deadline will result in a $25 late fee. Those approved to stay on campus during breaks will be charged a fee and may be required to move into a designated residential facility during the designated period. No personal storage is available over the summer months.

Break closing instructions will be provided by the Office of Residence Life prior to all closings. Failure to comply with these instructions may result in a $25 fine billed to the resident’s account. The Office of Residence Life has the option to split this cost between roommates or suitemates. This charge is determined by the Area Coordinator and/or Associate Director of Residence Life and cannot be appealed. For questions, please contact the Office of Residence Life at 440-826-2114 during normal business hours.
