ITINERARY

DAY 1 Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Center – Indianapolis
This morning we depart by private coach to Fremont, OH to visit our first presidential attraction, The Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Center. Rutherford B. Hayes, nineteenth president of the United States, was the fifth child born to Rutherford and Sophia Birchard Hayes. He was born October 4, 1822, at Delaware, Ohio. The Rutherford B. Hayes Presidential Center houses more than 19,000 three-dimensional objects and more than 30,000 images of these objects. The items in the searchable database belonged to President Rutherford B. Hayes, Lucy Webb Hayes, their family, and donors located throughout the United States. Civil War weapons, Spanish American uniforms, Hayes administration state china, and 19th century toys are just a few of the object catalog records available. After this visit, we will have a short drive to Toledo for lunch on your own at the famous Tony Packo’s. This Hungarian-American restaurant became famous thanks for M.A.S.H and Corporal Max Klinger. We will continue this vacation as we travel to Indianapolis for the night, dinner and prepare for more Presidential attractions.

DAY 2 Indianapolis, IN – Benjamin Harrison Presidential Site - Springfield, IL
After breakfast, we will meet out Historian for a guided tour of Benjamin Harrison Presidential Site. Trained docents will guide us on a 1 hour and 15 minute tour of the elegant home of Indiana’s only U.S. president. The dining room features presidential china, and Harrison’s study is filled with personal belongings from his White House years and his oval office desk. The majority (75%) of the house furnishings—which give an accurate view of the Victorian era—are original to the Harrison family, including the original wallpaper designs in the parlors and library. We will continue our journey to the capital of Illinois, Springfield for the night. This evening, get ready for a memorable evening as we have dinner with Abe at the historic Pasfield House. This presentation has been made into a PBS Special and is sure to be a wonderful evening.

DAY 3 Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library Museum & Tomb - Vincennes, IN
After breakfast, we will meet our local guide for an unforgettable tour. Journey from the beginning of Lincoln’s life in central Illinois through his tragic return to the city he called home. Points of interest include the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library & Museum, New Salem, Lincoln-Herndon Law Office, Old State Capitol, Lincoln Ledger, Lincoln Home and neighborhood, Lincoln Pew, Lincoln Depot and the Lincoln Tomb. Today’s highlight will be one of the newest Presidential libraries in the USA for one of our oldest presidents, Abraham Lincoln. After opening in 2005 The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library rapidly became the best attended of all the Presidential libraries and one of the most studied new museum in the world. The 200,000 square foot complex, which includes an Archive, Library and Museum, features public experiences, galleries and theater presentations that are more than 50% larger than any other presidential library. The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Museum is considered to be the first major Experience Museum. Designed, created and produced by BRC Imagination Arts, the museum combines priceless historical artifacts with BRC’s innovative, contemporary storytelling technologies. Visitors are offered an engaging, emotional and educational experience through immersive, “you-are-there” exhibits. A docent will meet us for a private tour of the Museum. Afterwards, we will travel to Vincennes, IN
DAY 4 Vincennes, IN – Grouseland (William Henry Harrison Mansion) - Mary Todd Lincoln Home, Lexington, KY
After breakfast we will tour Grouseland, the Presidential Home of William Henry Harrison. There are very few Presidential sites where you can walk across the street to see the incredible growth of a seed planted more than two centuries ago. Grouse land is one of them. A majestic mansion, Grouseland, is located adjacent to the 200-acre campus of Vincennes University, founded in 1801 by William Henry Harrison when he served as Governor of the Indiana Territory and lived at Grouseland. While such visionary leadership earned Harrison the U.S. Presidency in 1840, it is Vincennes University that stands as Harrison’s greatest living legacy today. And like its founder, VU is a trailblazer in higher education, earning its reputation as Indiana’s first college. Since its construction in 1803-04, Grouseland has been an enduring testament to the visionary leadership of William Henry Harrison. Afterwards, our Presidential journey continues to Lexington, KY to experience the Mary Todd Lincoln house. Overnight and dinner in Lexington (B, D)

DAY 5 Lexington walking tour Marion, OH (Warren G. Harding Memorial - Berea, OH
After breakfast we will walk the steps of Mary Lincoln as she enjoyed an urban upbringing in downtown Lexington. The downtown “Lincoln’s Lexington walking tour includes locations relevant to Mrs. Lincoln’s childhood and Lexington History. Afterwards we depart four last Presidential sights, the Warren G. Harding home and Memorial. The Harding Home, the residence of Warren G. and Florence Harding from 1891 to 1921, has been open continuously as a museum since 1926. The museum opened just three years after President Harding died from a heart attack in 1923. Mrs. Harding died just 15 months later from kidney disease, which had plagued her for many years. In her will, she made arrangements for the home and the bulk of the contents to go into the hands of the Harding Memorial Association. Begin your experience by entering the Press House, the cottage built in 1920 for the press corps covering Warren Harding’s Front Porch Campaign. From there you step on the front porch of the Harding Home, where your tour will begin. You will have a chance to browse the gift shop and museum, and view a 15-minute film about the Hardings. All tours must come to an end as we make our way back to Berea with fond memories of this historical President’s tour. (B, D)
