

Office of Graduate Studies & Research

Graduate Assistantship – Department of Allied Health, Sport and Wellness #2

Benefit: 25% Tuition Discount for 10 hours of work/week

Assistantship Responsibilities:

- Support EIM-OC (Exercise is Medicine On Campus) programming through supporting Exercise Testing and Programming for the campus community
 - EIM-OC is a national initiative for promoting exercise and physical activity as a sign of health across college campuses. Campuses are encouraged to provide students with opportunities to develop good fitness habits through special events and by integrating movement as a part of daily campus culture.
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Newly enrolled full-time graduate student in the Master of Science in Exercise Physiology program at Baldwin Wallace University
- Must be available to work an average of 10 hours per week
- Must be detail-oriented, collaborative, and have strong time management skills
- Must have the willingness to look at problems with creative, solution-focused approaches
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Use independent judgment in setting priorities