

Office of Graduate Studies & Research

Graduate Assistantship – Department of Education

College of Education and Health Sciences

Benefit: 25% Tuition Discount for 10 hours of work/week

Assistantship Responsibilities:

- Support faculty members in the Department with ongoing research projects including lit reviews, preparing annotated bibliographies, editing of manuscript/articles data collection and analysis
- Assist faculty members with IRB application as needed
- Support faculty members with pedagogical initiatives such as Service Learning
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Newly enrolled full-time graduate student at Baldwin Wallace University. Candidates enrolled in a Master of Arts in Education (MAEd) program will be given preference.
- Must be available to work an average of 10 hours per week
- Have basic research and data management skills
- Have strong organizational skills and be able to work independently
- Must be detail-oriented and collaborative
- Must have the willingness to look at problems with creative, solution-focused approaches
- Must have a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion