

Requirements Analysis & Design Definition Business Analysis

What You Will Learn

- Help evaluate requirements for completeness, correctness, and alignment with business needs
- Create models that improve communication of business need and potential solutions
- Manage requirements throughout the life cycle
- Identify solutions which fulfill the business needs
- Evaluate and recommend “best” solution(s)
- Enhance skills which further foster collaboration and creativity

Seminar Outline

I. Elaborating the Requirements

- Envisioning the future
- Additional modeling techniques (ie. Process, Context, Data)
- Acceptance criteria
- The requirements package

II. Getting the Right Requirement Right

- Evaluating the requirements
- Evaluating the requirements package
- Alignment with business value
- Requirements review techniques

III. Solutions Design

- JAD sessions
- Leading creativity
- Identifying solutions
- Evaluating options

IV. Managing BA Deliverables

- Requirements management plan
- Requirement prioritization
- Requirements traceability
- Change management

Who Should Attend

You will benefit most from this learning experience if you are a (an):

- Business Analyst, Systems Analyst, Requirements Professional
- Business Product Owner
- Business Architect
- Project/Program Manager or a PMO director, Team Leader
- Development Manager, Process Improvement Professional
- RFP Developer, or an IT Specialist in partnership with:

Baldwin Wallace University • 275 Eastland Road, Berea, OH 44017
(440) 826.2253 • bw.edu/cpd • bwpd@bw.edu